Sec. 2. [116H.60] [REGISTRATION PROGRAM.]

(a) On and after July 1, 2006, a retailer or manufacturer may not sell or offer for sale a new video display device to any person in the state unless:

(1) the video display device is labeled with the manufacturer's brand, which label is permanently affixed and readily visible; and

(2) the video display device is subject to a registration filed by a registrant with the office according to this section, with the registration effective upon receipt by the office.

(b) A retailer or manufacturer who sells or offers for sale a new video display device to a consumer in this state must, before initial offer for sale of the device, submit to the office a certification that the retailer or manufacturer has reviewed the office's Web site specified in paragraph (i), and has determined that all new video display devices that the retailer or manufacturer is then offering for sale are labeled with manufacturers' brands that are subject to registration statements filed with the office. After the initial submittal, the certification must be submitted to the office annually by July 10 of each year, effective as of July 1 of each year. A retailer is not responsible for an unlawful sale under this paragraph if the registration expired or was revoked and the retailer took possession of the video display device prior to the expiration or revocation of the registration and the unlawful sale occurred within six months after the expiration or revocation.

(c) By February 1, 2006, a manufacturer of video display devices sold to a consumer in this state must submit a registration to the office that includes a certification that a registrant will participate in the intermediate consolidation point program as specified in paragraph (n) beginning July 1, 2006. A manufacturer who begins to sell or offer for sale video display devices after February 1, 2006, and has not filed a registration pursuant to this section must submit a registration to the office within ten days of beginning to sell or offer for sale video display devices to consumers in the state. The registration is effective upon receipt by the office.

(d) The registration must list the manufacturer's brands. The registration must be updated within ten days after a change in the manufacturer's brands, such as in the event of an acquisition, merger, or divestiture.

(e) A registrant may partner with one or more manufacturers or other parties, collectively a "registrant," to prepare and submit to the office a joint video display device recycling, refurbishment, or reuse program.
(f) Each manufacturer who registers under this section must pay an annual fee which is deposited in an electronic waste account established in the environmental fund. The fee is equal to $2,000 multiplied by the manufacturer's pro rata share of video display devices as determined under section 116H.55, subdivision 12. A manufacturer registered under this section whose pro rata share is less than 0.25 percent must pay a minimum fee of $500. Money in the electronic waste account is appropriated to the office for the purpose of administering the program.

(g) The office shall develop procedures to administer and implement the program and shall present them to the legislature by January 15, 2006.

(h) The office must review each registration and notify the registrant if the registration does not include the information required by this section. Within 30 days of receipt of a notification from the office, the registrant must file with the office a revised registration providing the information noted by the office.

(i) The office must maintain on its Web site the names of the registrants and the manufacturers' brands that are listed in registrations filed with the office. The office must update the Web site information promptly upon receipt of a new registration or an updated registration.

(j) The obligations of a manufacturer or registrant apply only to video display devices received from households in this state and do not apply to video display devices received from owners other than households.

(k) Persons who receive a video display device for recycling, refurbishment, or reuse pursuant to a registration may recycle, refurbish, or reuse, including resale of, the video display device. Except to the extent otherwise required by law, such persons have no responsibility for any data that may be on the video display device if an information storage device is included with the video display device.

(l) A city, county, or other public agency may not require households to use the intermediate consolidation point program to recycle their video display devices to the exclusion of other programs legally available. This chapter anticipates that video display device recycling programs, in addition to those provided by manufacturers and registrants under this section, will be available to households in the state. Nothing in this chapter prohibits or restricts any such programs or prohibits or restricts any persons from receiving, storing, transporting, or recycling video display devices.

(m) By October 1 of each year, each registrant must submit a report to the office that describes the implementation of the program during the preceding program year. The program year is July 1 through June 30. The first report must be submitted by October 1, 2007. The report must:

(1) identify the total weight of the video display devices that the registrant has arranged for pickup from intermediate consolidation points during the preceding year, and the total weight of video display devices that the registrant has received from households through other methods during the preceding year and for which the registrant has used such video display devices to satisfy all or a portion of its pro rata share responsibility during the preceding year; and

(2) describe the processes and methods used to recycle, refurbish, or reuse video display devices that the registrant has arranged for pickup from intermediate collection points during the preceding year and that the registrant has received from households through other methods, and for which the registrant has used such video display devices to satisfy all or a portion of its pro rata share responsibility during the preceding year; and, in particular, identify any disassembly, physical recovery operation including crushing, shredding, grinding, or glass to glass recycling, or any other operation that was used and describe where it took place. The report must also discuss whether these activities included procedures described in the United States Environmental Protection Agency's guidelines for the environmentally sound management of electronic equipment.
(n) Participation in the intermediate consolidation point program requires that a registrant must:

(1) arrange for the pickup and recycling of a full truckload or truckloads of computer monitor video display devices or television video display devices received by intermediate consolidation points after July 1, 2006, up to the registrant’s pro rata share of computer monitor video display devices or television video display devices, from intermediate consolidation points, under procedures developed under paragraph (g). Registrants are responsible for the costs of pickup and recycling of the video display devices. A registrant may satisfy a portion or all of its pro rata share responsibility by receipt of video display devices from households through other methods if the registrant has not charged for the recycling, refurbishment, or reuse of the video display devices that the registrant has received from households in this state through the other methods. A registrant who intends to satisfy a portion or all of its pro rata share responsibility by receipt of video display devices from households through other methods must provide the office with a report of its receipt of video display devices through the other methods on a quarterly basis; and

(2) arrange for the pickup and recycling of the registrant’s pro rata share of orphan waste by weight from intermediate consolidation points, pursuant to procedures developed under paragraph (g). Registrants are responsible for the costs of pickup and recycling of the video display devices. A registrant may satisfy a portion or all of its pro rata share responsibility by receipt of video display devices from households through other methods if the registrant has not charged for the recycling, refurbishment, or reuse of the video display devices that the registrant received from households in this state through the other methods.

(o) After receipt of the report required by paragraph (m) to be filed on October 1, 2009, the office must review the performance of the program and may issue performance standards related to the number of units collected per household.

Sec. 3. [116H.65] [DUTIES OF OFFICE.]

(a) The office must administer and enforce this chapter.

(b) The office must establish procedures for:

(1) receipt and maintenance of the registration statements and certifications filed with the office pursuant to section 116H.60; and

(2) making the statements and certifications easily available to registrants, manufacturers, distributors, retailers, and members of the public.

(c) On or before December 1, 2010, and every three years thereafter, the office must provide a report to the governor and the legislature on the implementation of this chapter. For each of the preceding three program years, the report must discuss the total weight of video display devices received by all registrants from intermediate consolidation points, the total weight of video display devices received by each registrant from intermediate consolidation points, the total weight of video display devices that the registrant has received from households through other methods during the preceding year and which the registrant has used to satisfy all or a portion of its pro rata share responsibility during the preceding year, and a summary of information in the report submitted by registrants pursuant to section 116H.60, paragraph (m). The report must also discuss the various collection programs used to collect video display devices and information received by the office regarding video display devices that are not being collected by the registrants. The report must include a description of enforcement actions under this chapter and information about video display devices, if any, being disposed of in landfills in this state. The office may include in its report other information received by the office regarding the implementation of this chapter.
(d) The office must administer the intermediate consolidation point program.

(1) The office must calculate pro rata shares for video display devices on an annual program year basis for each registrant. Pro rata shares for the first program year must be determined by the office by May 1, 2006, using the Hennepin County study. For each subsequent year, pro rata shares must be determined by May 1 of the preceding year based upon an annual sampling survey conducted by the office at intermediate consolidation points during that preceding year. The sampling survey must identify televisions and computer monitors separately, and calculate the weight of televisions and computer monitors separately. The office may provide registrants with projections or estimates of the amount by weight of video display devices for which the registrant may be responsible during a given program year.

(2) The office must establish, under procedures developed under section 116H.60, paragraph (g), a system to coordinate among registrants pickups from intermediate consolidation points after an intermediate consolidation point has notified the office that a full truckload of video display devices from households has been consolidated. The office must provide a program year accounting of the extent to which each registrant met its pro rata share responsibility as established pursuant to section 116H.60, paragraph (n), and methods for addressing amounts greater than or less than a registrant's pro rata share responsibility that were picked up and recycled by a registrant during the program year.

(3) By February 1, 2006, the office must receive applications for the establishment of intermediate consolidation points. The director must seek to receive at least 15 applications with at least ten of the applications from outside the metropolitan area. By April 30, 2006, the office must establish a list of approved intermediate consolidation points and must provide the list on its Web site. Manufacturers and registrants have no responsibility for any costs of the intermediate consolidation points. Applications for the establishment of intermediate consolidation points must specify any method that will be used to ensure that video display devices will be collected only from households or that video display devices from households will be segregated from other video display devices.

Sec. 4. [116H.75] [REQUIREMENTS FOR PURCHASES BY STATE AGENCIES.]

(a) The Department of Administration must ensure that acquisitions of video display devices under chapter 16C are certified by the vendor to be in compliance with section 116H.60.

(b) The bid solicitation documents must specify that the prospective bidder is required to cooperate fully in providing reasonable access to its records and documents that evidence compliance with paragraph (a) and section 116H.60.

(c) Any person awarded a contract under chapter 16C for purchase or lease of video display devices that is found to be in violation of paragraph (a) or section 116H.60 is subject to the following sanctions:

(1) the contract must be voided;

(2) the contractor is ineligible to bid on any state contract for a period of three years; and

(3) if the attorney general establishes that any money, property, or benefit was obtained by a contractor as a result of violating paragraph (a) or section 116H.60, the court may, in addition to any other remedy, order the disgorgement of the unlawfully obtained money, property, or benefit.
Sec. 5. [116H.80] [REGULATION OF CRT DEVICES.]

Rules adopted by the office or by the Pollution Control Agency regarding the handling, storage, and treatment of cathode ray tube devices or video display devices being recycled may not be more restrictive than regulations adopted by the United States Environmental Protection Agency. If the United States Environmental Protection Agency adopts regulations under the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act regarding the handling, storage, or treatment of cathode ray tube devices or video display devices being recycled, those regulations are automatically effective in this state on the same date and supersede any rules previously adopted by the office or the Pollution Control Agency regarding the handling, storage, or treatment of cathode ray tube devices or video display devices being recycled.

Sec. 6. [116H.85] [ENFORCEMENT.]

This chapter shall be enforced in the manner provided by sections 115.071, subdivisions 1, 3, 4, 5, and 6; and 116.072.

Sec. 7. [116H.90] [LIMITATIONS.]

This chapter expires if a federal law, or combination of federal laws, takes effect that is applicable to all video display devices sold in the United States and establishes a program for the collection and recycling or reuse of video display devices that is applicable to all video display devices discarded by households.

With the recommendation that when so amended the bill be re-referred to the Committee on Ways and Means without further recommendation.
