181.101 WAGES; HOW OFTEN PAID.

Every employer must pay all wages earned by an employee at least once every 31 days on a regular pay day designated in advance by the employer regardless of whether the employee requests payment at longer intervals. Unless paid earlier, the wages earned during the first half of the first 31-day pay period become due on the first regular payday following the first day of work. If wages earned are not paid, the commissioner of labor and industry or the commissioner's representative may demand payment on behalf of an employee. If payment is not made within ten days of demand, the commissioner may charge and collect the wages earned and a penalty in the amount of the employee's average daily earnings at the rate agreed upon in the contract of employment, not exceeding 15 days in all, for each day beyond the ten-day limit following the demand. Money collected by the commissioner must be paid to the employee concerned. This section does not prevent an employee from prosecuting a claim for wages. This section does not prevent a school district or other public school entity, or other school, as defined under section 120A.22, from paying any wages earned by its employees during a school year on regular pay days in the manner provided by an applicable contract or collective bargaining agreement, or a personnel policy adopted by the governing board. For purposes of this section, "employee" includes a person who performs agricultural labor as defined in section 181.85, subdivision 2. For purposes of this section, wages are earned on the day an employee works."

There being no objection, House Resolution No. 23 was reported to the House.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 23

A House resolution recognizing May 4, 2006, as a Day of Prayer in Minnesota.

Whereas, the citizens of the state of Minnesota have roots in many cultures, with nearly every nationality represented, and honor a variety of religious traditions; and

Whereas, the history of our state is replete with leaders who voluntarily called upon God, whether the need was great or small; and
Whereas, civic and national days of prayer have a long and venerable history in our constitutional republic, dating back to the First Continental Congress in 1775; and

Whereas, the Declaration of Independence, our first statement as Americans of national purpose and identity, made "the laws of Nature and of Nature's God" the foundation of our United States of America and asserted that people have inalienable rights that are God-given; and

Whereas, in 1988, legislation setting aside the first Thursday in May in each year as a National Day of Prayer was passed unanimously by both houses of Congress and signed by the President; and

Whereas, the National Day of Prayer is an opportunity for Americans of all faiths to join in united prayer to acknowledge our dependence on God's grace, to give thanks for blessings received, to request healing for wounds endured, and to ask God to guide our leaders, bless our troops, and bring wholeness to the United States and its citizens; and

Whereas, May 4, 2006, marks the fifty-fifth consecutive observance of the National Day of Prayer in cities and towns throughout the United States and provides us with a powerful opportunity to humble ourselves; and

Whereas, this year it is fitting that we pray especially for American armed services members serving in Iraq, Afghanistan, Bosnia, Kosovo, and other parts of the world, or supporting those who serve there; and

Whereas, the citizens of Minnesota have the opportunity to gather on this day to pray in their own way; Now, Therefore,

Be it Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Minnesota that it recognizes May 4, 2006, as a Day of Prayer in the state of Minnesota and commends this observance to all citizens.

Be it Further Resolved that the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives is directed to prepare an enrolled copy of this resolution, to be authenticated by his signature and that of the Speaker, and transmit it to the National Prayer Committee.

Erickson moved that House Resolution No. 23 be now adopted. The motion prevailed and House Resolution No. 23 was adopted.

Paulsen moved that the House recess subject to the call of the Chair. The motion prevailed.

RECESS

RECONVENED

The House reconvened and was called to order by Speaker pro tempore Abrams.
