REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES AND DIVISIONS

Mullery from the Committee on Public Safety and Civil Justice to which was referred:

H. F. No. 635, A bill for an act relating to telecommunications; enacting the Minnesota Wireless Telephone Consumer Protection Act; changing certain existing requirements; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 325F; repealing Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 325F.695.

Reported the same back with the recommendation that the bill pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Commerce and Labor.

The report was adopted.
Pelowski from the Committee on Governmental Operations, Reform, Technology and Elections to which was referred:

H. F. No. 863, A bill for an act relating to global warming and the environment; requiring adoption of California standards regarding low emission vehicles; providing for updates to the standards as necessary to comply with the federal Clean Air Act; amending Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 116.07, subdivision 2.

Reported the same back with the recommendation that the bill pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Commerce and Labor.

The report was adopted.

Mullery from the Committee on Public Safety and Civil Justice to which was referred:

H. F. No. 1625, A bill for an act relating to public safety; authorizing permanent orders for protection and restraining orders after multiple violations or continued threats; amending Minnesota Statutes 2006, sections 518B.01, subdivisions 6, 6a, 11, 18; 609.748, subdivisions 3, 5, 8.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 518B.01, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. Relief by the court. (a) Upon notice and hearing, the court may provide relief as follows:

(1) restrain the abusing party from committing acts of domestic abuse;

(2) exclude the abusing party from the dwelling which the parties share or from the residence of the petitioner;

(3) exclude the abusing party from a reasonable area surrounding the dwelling or residence, which area shall be described specifically in the order;

(4) award temporary custody or establish temporary parenting time with regard to minor children of the parties on a basis which gives primary consideration to the safety of the victim and the children. In addition to the primary safety considerations, the court may consider particular best interest factors that are found to be relevant to the temporary custody and parenting time award. Findings under section 257.025, 518.17, or 518.175 are not required with respect to the particular best interest factors not considered by the court. If the court finds that the safety of the victim or the children will be jeopardized by unsupervised or unrestricted parenting time, the court shall condition or restrict parenting time as to time, place, duration, or supervision, or deny parenting time entirely, as needed to guard the safety of the victim and the children. The court's decision on custody and parenting time shall in no way delay the issuance of an order for protection granting other relief provided for in this section. The court must not enter a parenting plan under section 518.1705 as part of an action for an order for protection;

(5) on the same basis as is provided in chapter 518 or 518A, establish temporary support for minor children or a spouse, and order the withholding of support from the income of the person obligated to pay the support according to chapter 518A;

(6) provide upon request of the petitioner counseling or other social services for the parties, if married, or if there are minor children;
(7) order the abusing party to participate in treatment or counseling services, including requiring the abusing party to successfully complete a domestic abuse counseling program or educational program under section 518B.02;

(8) award temporary use and possession of property and restrain one or both parties from transferring, encumbering, concealing, or disposing of property except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life, and to account to the court for all such transfers, encumbrances, dispositions, and expenditures made after the order is served or communicated to the party restrained in open court;

(9) exclude the abusing party from the place of employment of the petitioner, or otherwise limit access to the petitioner by the abusing party at the petitioner's place of employment;

(10) order the abusing party to have no contact with the petitioner whether in person, by telephone, mail, or electronic mail or messaging, through a third party, or by any other means;

(11) order the abusing party to pay restitution to the petitioner;

(12) order the continuance of all currently available insurance coverage without change in coverage or beneficiary designation; and

(13) order, in its discretion, other relief as it deems necessary for the protection of a family or household member, including orders or directives to the sheriff or other law enforcement or corrections officer as provided by this section.

(b) Any relief granted by the order for protection shall be for a fixed period not to exceed one year, two years, except when the court determines a longer fixed period is appropriate. When a referee presides at the hearing on the petition, the order granting relief becomes effective upon the referee's signature.

(c) An order granting the relief authorized in paragraph (a), clause (1), may not be vacated or modified in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or legal separation, except that the court may hear a motion for modification of an order for protection concurrently with a proceeding for dissolution of marriage upon notice of motion and motion. The notice required by court rule shall not be waived. If the proceedings are consolidated and the motion to modify is granted, a separate order for modification of an order for protection shall be issued.

(d) An order granting the relief authorized in paragraph (a), clause (2) or (3), is not voided by the admittance of the abusing party into the dwelling from which the abusing party is excluded.

(e) If a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or legal separation is pending between the parties, the court shall provide a copy of the order for protection to the court with jurisdiction over the dissolution or separation proceeding for inclusion in its file.

(f) An order for restitution issued under this subdivision is enforceable as civil judgment.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective July 1, 2008.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 518B.01, subdivision 6a, is amended to read:

Subd. 6a. Subsequent orders and extensions. (a) Upon application, notice to all parties, and hearing, the court may extend the relief granted in an existing order for protection or, if a petitioner's order for protection is no longer in effect when an application for subsequent relief is made, grant a new order. The court may extend the terms of an existing order or, if an order is no longer in effect, grant a new order upon a showing that:

(1) the respondent has violated a prior or existing order for protection;
(2) the petitioner is reasonably in fear of physical harm from the respondent;

(3) the respondent has engaged in acts of harassment or stalking within the meaning of section 609.749, subdivision 2; or

(4) the respondent is incarcerated and about to be released, or has recently been released from incarceration.

A petitioner does not need to show that physical harm is imminent to obtain an extension or a subsequent order under this subdivision.

(b) Relief granted by the order for protection may be for a period of 50 years, if the court finds:

(1) the respondent has violated a prior or existing order for protection on two or more occasions; or

(2) the petitioner has had two or more orders for protection in effect against the same respondent.

The court may provide relief under this paragraph as follows: (1) restrain the abusing party from committing acts of domestic abuse; or (2) prohibit the abusing party from having any contact with the petitioner whether in person, by telephone, mail or electronic mail or messaging, through electronic devices, through a third party, or by any other means.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective July 1, 2008.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 518B.01, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. Modification of order. (a) Upon application, notice to all parties, and hearing, the court may modify the terms of an existing order for protection.

(b) If the court orders relief under subdivision 6a, paragraph (b), the respondent named in the order for protection may request to have the order vacated or modified if the order has been in effect for at least five years and the respondent has not violated the order during that time. Application for relief under this subdivision must be made in the county in which the order for protection was issued. Upon receipt of the request, the court shall set a hearing date. Personal service must be made upon the petitioner named in the order for protection not less than 30 days before the date of the hearing. At the hearing, the respondent named in the order for protection shall have the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that there has been a material change in circumstances and that the reasons upon which the court relied in granting or extending the order for protection no longer apply and are unlikely to occur. If the court finds that the respondent named in the order for protection has met the burden of proof, the court may vacate or modify the order. If the court finds that the respondent named in the order for protection has not met the burden of proof, the court shall deny the request and no request may be made to vacate or modify the order for protection until five years have elapsed from the date of denial. Any order vacated or modified under this paragraph must be personally served on the petitioner named in the order for protection.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective July 1, 2008.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 518B.01, subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. Notices. (a) Each order for protection granted under this chapter must contain a conspicuous notice to the respondent or person to be restrained that:

(1) violation of an order for protection is either (i) a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for up to 90 days or a fine of up to $1,000, or both, (ii) a gross misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment of up to one year or a fine of up to $3,000, or both, or (iii) a felony punishable by imprisonment of up to five years or a fine of up to $10,000, or both;
(2) the respondent is forbidden to enter or stay at the petitioner's residence, even if invited to do so by the petitioner or any other person; in no event is the order for protection voided;

(3) a peace officer must arrest without warrant and take into custody a person whom the peace officer has probable cause to believe has violated an order for protection restraining the person or excluding the person from a residence; and

(4) pursuant to the Violence Against Women Act of 1994, United States Code, title 18, section 2265, the order is enforceable in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, tribal lands, and United States territories, that violation of the order may also subject the respondent to federal charges and punishment under United States Code, title 18, sections 2261 and 2262, and that if a final order is entered against the respondent after the hearing, the respondent may be prohibited from possessing, transporting, or accepting a firearm under the 1994 amendment to the Gun Control Act, United States Code, title 18, section 922(g)(8).

(b) If the court grants relief under subdivision 6a, paragraph (b), the order for protection must also contain a conspicuous notice to the respondent or person to be restrained that the respondent must wait five years to seek a modification of the order.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective July 1, 2008.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 609.748, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Contents of petition; hearing; notice. (a) A petition for relief must allege facts sufficient to show the following:

(1) the name of the alleged harassment victim;

(2) the name of the respondent; and

(3) that the respondent has engaged in harassment.

A petition for relief must state whether the petitioner has ever had a restraining order in effect against the respondent. The petition shall be accompanied by an affidavit made under oath stating the specific facts and circumstances from which relief is sought. The court shall provide simplified forms and clerical assistance to help with the writing and filing of a petition under this section and shall advise the petitioner of the right to sue in forma pauperis under section 563.01. The court shall advise the petitioner of the right to request a hearing. If the petitioner does not request a hearing, the court shall advise the petitioner that the respondent may request a hearing and that notice of the hearing date and time will be provided to the petitioner by mail at least five days before the hearing. Upon receipt of the petition and a request for a hearing by the petitioner, the court shall order a hearing. Personal service must be made upon the respondent not less than five days before the hearing. If personal service cannot be completed in time to give the respondent the minimum notice required under this paragraph, the court may set a new hearing date. Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring a hearing on a matter that has no merit.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), the order for a hearing and a temporary order issued under subdivision 4 may be served on the respondent by means of a one-week published notice under section 645.11, if:

(1) the petitioner files an affidavit with the court stating that an attempt at personal service made by a sheriff was unsuccessful because the respondent is avoiding service by concealment or otherwise; and
(2) a copy of the petition and order for hearing and any temporary restraining order has been mailed to the respondent at the respondent's residence or place of business, if the respondent is an organization, or the respondent's residence or place of business is not known to the petitioner.

(c) Regardless of the method of service, if the respondent is a juvenile, whenever possible, the court also shall have notice of the pendency of the case and of the time and place of the hearing served by mail at the last known address upon any parent or guardian of the juvenile respondent who is not the petitioner.

(d) A request for a hearing under this subdivision must be made within 45 days of the filing or receipt of the petition.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective July 1, 2008.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 609.748, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Restraining order. (a) The court may grant a restraining order ordering the respondent to cease or avoid the harassment of another person or to have no contact with that person if all of the following occur:

(1) the petitioner has filed a petition under subdivision 3;

(2) the sheriff has served respondent with a copy of the temporary restraining order obtained under subdivision 4, and with notice of the right to request a hearing, or service has been made by publication under subdivision 3, paragraph (b); and

(3) the court finds at the hearing that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the respondent has engaged in harassment.

A restraining order may be issued only against the respondent named in the petition; except that if the respondent is an organization, the order may be issued against and apply to all of the members of the organization. If the court finds that the petitioner has had two or more previous restraining orders in effect against the same respondent or the respondent has violated a prior or existing restraining order on two or more occasions, relief granted by the restraining order may be for a period of 50 years. In all other cases, relief granted by the restraining order must be for a fixed period of not more than two years. When a referee presides at the hearing on the petition, the restraining order becomes effective upon the referee's signature.

(b) An order issued under this subdivision must be personally served upon the respondent.

(c) If the court orders relief for a period of 50 years under paragraph (a), the respondent named in the restraining order may request to have the restraining order vacated or modified if the order has been in effect for at least five years and the respondent has not violated the order. Application for relief under this paragraph must be made in the county in which the restraining order was issued. Upon receipt of the request, the court shall set a hearing date. Personal service must be made upon the petitioner named in the restraining order not less than 30 days before the date of the hearing. At the hearing, the respondent named in the restraining order shall have the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that there has been a material change in circumstances and that the reasons upon which the court relied in granting the restraining order no longer apply and are unlikely to occur. If the court finds that the respondent named in the restraining order has met the burden of proof, the court may vacate or modify the order. If the court finds that the respondent named in the restraining order has not met the burden of proof, the court shall deny the request and no request may be made to vacate or modify the restraining order until five years have elapsed from the date of denial. Any order vacated or modified under this paragraph must be personally served on the petitioner named in the restraining order.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective July 1, 2008.
Sec. 7.  Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 609.748, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. Notice. (a) An order granted under this section must contain a conspicuous notice to the respondent:

(1) of the specific conduct that will constitute a violation of the order;

(2) that violation of an order is either (i) a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for up to 90 days or a fine of up to $1,000, or both, (ii) a gross misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for up to one year or a fine of up to $3,000, or both, or (iii) a felony punishable by imprisonment for up to five years or a fine of up to $10,000, or both; and

(3) that a peace officer must arrest without warrant and take into custody a person if the peace officer has probable cause to believe the person has violated a restraining order.

(b) If the court grants relief for a period of 50 years under subdivision 5, the order must also contain a conspicuous notice to the respondent that the respondent must wait five years to seek a modification of the order.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective July 1, 2008.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

Section 1. CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS PROPOSED.

An amendment to the Minnesota Constitution is proposed to the people. If the amendment is adopted, article VI, section 7, will read:

Sec. 7. The term of office of all judges shall be six years and until their successors are qualified. They Following appointment by the governor, each judge shall initially hold office for a term ending December 31 following the next regularly scheduled general election held more than three years after the appointment. Thereafter, the term of office shall be eight years and until a successor is appointed and qualified and shall commence on the first day of January following the judge's retention election. Judges' retention shall be determined elected by the voters from the area which they serve, in the manner provided by law. A judicial performance commission shall evaluate in a nonpartisan manner the performance of judges according to criteria that the commission develops and publishes, and such other criteria as may be established by law.

article VI, section 8, will read:

Sec. 8. Whenever there is a vacancy in the office of judge, the governor shall appoint in the manner provided by law a qualified person to fill the vacancy until a successor is elected and qualified. The successor shall be elected for a six year term at the next general election occurring more than one year after the appointment from a list of candidates nominated by a selection commission, in the manner provided by law.

Sec. 2. SUBMISSION TO VOTERS.

The proposed amendment must be submitted to the people at the 2008 general election. The question submitted must be:

"Shall the Minnesota Constitution be amended to provide that judges shall be appointed by the governor from a list of names submitted by a selection commission, evaluated based on performance before standing for a retention election to the office, and then retained or removed regularly based on a decision by the voters?

Yes .......
No ......."
SECTION 1. Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 10A.01, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. Ballot question. "Ballot question" means a question or proposition that is placed on the ballot and that may be voted on by all voters of the state. "Promoting or defeating a ballot question" includes activities related to qualifying the question for placement on the ballot. A ballot question does not include a judicial retention election.

SECTION 2. Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 10A.01, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. Candidate. "Candidate" means an individual who seeks nomination or election as a state constitutional officer, or legislator, or judge retention in a judicial office. An individual is deemed to seek nomination or election if the individual has taken the action necessary under the law of this state to qualify for nomination or election, has received contributions or made expenditures in excess of $100, or has given implicit or explicit consent for any other person to receive contributions or make expenditures in excess of $100, for the purpose of bringing about the individual's nomination or election. A candidate remains a candidate until the candidate's principal campaign committee is dissolved as provided in section 10A.24.

SECTION 3. Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 10A.01, subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. Election. "Election" means a primary, special primary, general, or special, or retention election.

SECTION 4. Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 204B.06, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. Judicial retention candidates; designation of term office. An individual who files as a retention candidate for the office of chief justice or associate justice of the Supreme Court, judge of the Court of Appeals, or judge of the district court shall state in the affidavit of candidacy the office of the particular justice or judge for which the individual is a retention candidate. The individual shall be a retention candidate only for the office identified in the affidavit. Each justice of the Supreme Court and each Court of Appeals and district court judge is deemed to hold a separate nonpartisan office.
(a) (1) In the case of the Supreme Court:

"Chief justice";

"Associate justice (number)";

(2) In the case of the Court of Appeals:

"Judge (number)"; or

(3) In the case of the district court:

"Judge (number)."

(b) A judicial retention election shall be placed on the ballot as a question, as provided in subdivision 3. The question shall appear in substantially the following form: "Shall ..... (name of judge) of the ..... (district court, court of appeals, or supreme court) be retained in office?"

Sec. 7. [204D.30] RETENTION OF JUDGES.

(a) Within the time period established by section 204B.09, a judge seeking to retain judicial office shall file an affidavit of candidacy with the secretary of state. All judges who have filed an affidavit of candidacy as provided in this section shall be placed on the appropriate official ballot at the next regular general election under a nonpartisan designation in the form provided in section 204B.36, subdivision 4.

(b) If a majority of those voting on the question votes "No," then upon the expiration of the term for which the judge was serving, a vacancy shall exist, which shall be filled as provided in chapter 480B. If a majority of those voting on the question vote "Yes," the judge shall remain in office for an eight-year term, subject to removal as provided by the Minnesota Constitution. A judge who loses a retention election shall be ineligible to be nominated to fill the resulting vacancy.

(c) A judge seeking to retain judicial office shall be considered a candidate for election to that office. A judicial retention election is not a ballot question for the purposes of the Minnesota election law.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 2006, section 480B.01, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. Nominees to governor. Within 60 days after the receipt of a notice of a judicial vacancy, the committee shall recommend to the governor no fewer than three and no more than five nominees for each judicial vacancy. The names of the nominees must be made public. The governor may fill the vacancy from the nominees recommended by the commission. If the governor declines to select a nominee to fill the vacancy from the list of nominees, or if no list is submitted to the governor under this subdivision, the governor may select a person to fill the vacancy without regard to the commission's recommendation. If fewer than 60 days remain in the term of office of a governor who will not succeed to another term, the governor may fill a vacancy without waiting for the commission to recommend a list of nominees. Within 60 days from the occurrence of a vacancy in the office of judge, the commission on judicial selection shall submit to the governor the names of three candidates nominated by the commission for the vacancy. The names of the nominees must be made public. The governor shall appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy from that list of three candidates or may direct the commission to nominate three additional candidates from which the governor shall appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy. If the governor directs the commission to nominate additional candidates, the commission must submit its list of nominees to the governor within 60 days. If the governor requests an additional set of nominees, the appointment must be made from the new set. If the commission does not submit a list of nominees within the required time frame, the governor may appoint any qualified individual to fill the vacancy without regard to the commission's work.
Sec. 9.  [480B.02] COMMISSION ON APPELLATE JUDICIAL SELECTION.

Subdivision 1.  Commission on Appellate Judicial Selection.  (a) A Commission on Appellate Judicial Selection is established in the judicial branch.  The commission shall be composed of 11 members.  In addition to the provisions established in this section, the commission shall conduct business in the manner specified by section 480B.01, subdivisions 7, 9, 10, and 12.

(b) All members of the commission must be residents of the state of Minnesota at the time of their appointment and for the duration of their term.  Members of the commission may not serve as a public official as defined in section 10A.01, subdivision 35, while a member of the commission.  Members of the commission who are attorneys must have been admitted to practice before the Minnesota Supreme Court for not less than five years.  Members shall be eligible for reappointment up to two additional full terms.  Members of the commission who would otherwise be eligible to hold judicial office may not be considered or appointed to fill a judicial vacancy while they are members of the commission or for one year following the end of membership on the commission.

Subd. 2.  Commission members.  (a) Members of the commission shall be appointed and serve as follows:

(1) the governor shall appoint five members of the commission, one of whom must be appointed to serve as commission chair.  Gubernatorial appointees shall serve on the commission until the governor who made the appointment leaves office or for a term of four years, whichever comes first;

(2) the chief justice of the Supreme Court shall appoint two members of the commission.  The chief justice's appointees shall serve on the commission for a four-year term; and

(3) the legislature shall appoint a total of four members.  Legislative appointments shall be made sequentially as follows: the speaker of the house shall appoint one member, the majority leader of the senate shall appoint one member, the minority leader of the house shall appoint one member, and the minority leader of the senate shall appoint one member.  Legislative appointees shall serve on the commission for a two-year term.

(b) In making appointments, the governor, chief justice, and legislative leaders must consider the diversity of the state's population, as well as the importance of balanced geographic representation, and appoint individuals of outstanding competence and reputation.  The governor, chief justice, and legislative leaders should consult with one another to ensure the requirements of this paragraph are met.

(c) A member may be removed by the appointing authority at any time (1) for cause, after notice and hearing, or (2) after missing three consecutive meetings.  The chair of the board shall inform the appointing authority of a member missing the three consecutive meetings.  After the second consecutive missed meeting and before the next meeting, the secretary of the board shall notify the member in writing that the member may be removed for missing the next meeting.

(d) In the case of a vacancy on the board, the appointing authority shall appoint a person to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the unexpired term.

Subd. 3.  Nominations.  (a) Within 60 days from the occurrence of a vacancy in the office of appellate judge, the Appellate Judicial Merit Selection Commission shall submit to the governor the names of three candidates nominated by the commission for the vacancy.  The governor shall appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy from that list of three candidates or may direct the commission to nominate three additional candidates from which the governor shall appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy.  If the governor directs the commission to nominate additional candidates, the commission must submit its list of nominees to the governor within 60 days.  If the governor requests an additional set of nominees, the appointment must be made from the new set.  If the commission does not submit a list of nominees within the required time frame, the governor may appoint any qualified individual to fill the vacancy without regard to the commission's work.
(b) The commission must nominate qualified persons to fill a judicial vacancy based on the following criteria: integrity, legal knowledge, communication skills, judicial temperament, the ability to promote trust and confidence in the judiciary, common sense, experience, and diversity. The principal consideration in nominating a candidate for a vacancy shall be merit. The commission must make nominations in an impartial and objective manner without regard for the political affiliation of the nominee or the governor.

Sec. 10. [480B.03] JUDICIAL PERFORMANCE COMMISSION.

Subdivision 1. Purpose of commission. A Judicial Performance Commission is established in the judicial branch. After public hearings, the commission shall adopt and administer for all judges a process for evaluating judicial performance. The performance review process must be designed to assist voters in evaluating the performance of judges standing for retention, facilitate self-improvement of all judges, and promote the public accountability of the judiciary.

Subd. 2. Commission members. (a) The Judicial Performance Commission shall be composed of 25 members. All members of the commission must be residents of Minnesota at the time of their appointment and for the duration of their term. A member of the commission may not serve as a public official, as defined in section 10A.01, subdivision 35, while a member of the commission. Members of the commission who are attorneys must have been admitted to practice before the Minnesota Supreme Court for not less than five years. Members of the commission shall be eligible for reappointment up to two additional full terms.

(b) Members of the commission shall be appointed and serve as follows:

(1) the governor shall appoint a total of nine members. Gubernatorial appointees shall serve on the commission until the governor who made the appointment leaves office or for a term of four years, whichever comes first;

(2) the chief justice of the Supreme Court shall appoint a total of eight members. The chief justice may only appoint individuals who are sitting or former Minnesota state court judges. The chief justice shall select one of the appointees to serve as chair of the commission. The chief justice’s appointees shall serve on the commission for a four-year term; and

(3) the legislature shall appoint a total of eight members. Legislative appointments shall be made sequentially as follows: the speaker of the house shall appoint one member, the majority leader of the senate shall appoint one member, the minority leader of the house shall appoint one member, and the minority leader of the senate shall appoint one member. After each legislative leader has made one appointment as provided in this clause, a second round of appointments shall be made in the same sequence. Legislative appointees shall serve on the commission for a two-year term.

(c) In making appointments, the governor, chief justice, and legislative leaders must consider the diversity of the state’s population, as well as the importance of balanced geographic representation, and appoint individuals of outstanding competence and reputation. The governor, chief justice, and legislative leaders should consult with one another to ensure the requirements of this paragraph are met.

(d) Members shall perform their duties in an impartial and objective manner and shall base their recommendations solely upon matters that are in the record developed by the commission.

(e) A member may be removed by the appointing authority at any time (1) for cause, after notice and hearing, or (2) after missing three consecutive meetings. The chair of the board shall inform the appointing authority of a member missing the three consecutive meetings. After the second consecutive missed meeting and before the next meeting, the secretary of the board shall notify the member in writing that the member may be removed for missing the next meeting.
(f) In the case of a vacancy on the board, the appointing authority shall appoint a person to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the unexpired term.

Subd. 3. Meetings and data. All meetings of the Judicial Performance Commission are subject to the requirements of chapter 13D. Notwithstanding section 13.90, and except as otherwise provided in this section, data collected by the commission is public data pursuant to section 13.03, subdivision 1.

Subd. 4. Authority of commission. (a) The Judicial Performance Commission shall develop written standards, subject to approval by the supreme court, by which judicial performance is to be evaluated. The standards shall be periodically updated and must include knowledge of the law, procedure, integrity, impartiality, temperament, respect for litigants, respect for the rule of law, administrative skill, punctuality, and communication skills. The commission may not evaluate judicial performance based on substantive legal issues or opinions subject to standard appellate processes.

(b) The commission shall establish procedures for collecting information and conducting reviews and shall create and implement a program of periodic review of the performance of each judge. The commission must request public comment. Hearings shall be conducted on the performance of all judges prior to a final determination as to whether a judge meets or does not meet judicial performance standards. Hearings may be conducted by a panel of commission members, as provided in subdivision 8.

Subd. 5. Surveys. (a) Midway through a judge's term and again no fewer than nine months before the date of the election for retention of the judge's position, anonymous survey forms eliciting performance evaluations shall be distributed to a representative sampling of attorneys, litigants, other judges, and other persons who have been in direct contact with each judge being evaluated and who have direct knowledge of the judge's judicial performance during the evaluation period. The Supreme Court may adopt a rule establishing standards for survey procedures.

(b) The Judicial Performance Commission shall employ or contract with qualified individuals to prepare survey forms, process the survey responses, and compile the statistical reports of the survey results in a manner designed to ensure confidentiality and accuracy.

(c) The survey forms shall seek evaluations in accordance with the written performance standards approved by the Supreme Court and must solicit narrative comments regarding the judge's performance. Narrative comments shall be classified as private. In each election year, prior to making its final evaluation, the commission shall request written public comments and hold public hearings with respect to judges standing for retention.

Subd. 6. Midterm evaluation. The commission shall evaluate each judge halfway through the judge's term, as nearly as practicable, to provide feedback to the judge about the judge's performance and to give the judge an opportunity for improvement.

Subd. 7. Final evaluation. A judge seeking to be retained in office shall notify the commission in writing at least one year before the judge's term expires. An evaluation panel shall conduct an evaluation of the judge, and declare the judge "qualified" or "unqualified" for office. A declaration of "unqualified" shall not prohibit a judge from seeking retention by the voters.

Subd. 8. Evaluation panels; review by full commission. (a) An evaluation panel shall consist of five members, including at least one member appointed by each branch of government, but otherwise chosen randomly.
A district judge who serves as a panel member may not evaluate another district judge who sits in the same judicial district. A panel must report its results to the full commission. The full commission shall review a panel's evaluation if the panel declares a judge unqualified, or if one panelist or three members of the commission request a review within 15 days after the panel makes its report. The commission may overturn a panel's decision. If a panel's decision is not reviewed, the determination of the panel shall be final.
(b) If an evaluation is reviewed by the full commission, the commission shall provide written notice to the affected judge. The judge shall have the right to submit written comments to the commission and to appear and be heard by the commission prior to the final vote of the commission.

Subd. 9. Publication of evaluation results. Following a final evaluation, the commission shall compile a factual report on the judicial performance of each judge standing for retention and shall make the report available to the public one month before the time period established in section 204B.09 for filing an affidavit of candidacy with the secretary of state.

Subd. 10. Rules. The commission may adopt rules establishing additional criteria for evaluating judges and ensuring efficient performance of the commission’s duties. For purposes of this subdivision, the commission is an agency under chapter 14.

Sec. 11. [480B.05] JUDICIAL RETENTION ELECTIONS.

Judicial retention elections shall be conducted consistent with the procedures established by law for the administration of state general elections. Judges standing for retention shall be placed on the ballot as provided in section 204D.30.

Sec. 12. [480B.07] REQUIREMENTS FOR SERVICE ON COMMISSIONS.

Subdivision 1. Service on multiple commissions prohibited. A person may not simultaneously serve on two or more commissions established under this chapter.

Subd. 2. Service until appointment of successors. Members of commissions established under this chapter continue to serve until their successors have been appointed and qualified.

Sec. 13. [480B.09] TELEPHONIC OR ELECTRONIC PARTICIPATION IN MEETINGS.

(a) If compliance with section 13D.02 is impractical, any of the commissions established under this chapter may conduct a meeting of its members by telephone or other electronic means, so long as the following conditions are met:

1. all members of the commission participating in the meeting, wherever their physical location, can hear one another and can hear all discussion and testimony;

2. all members of the public present at the regular meeting location can clearly hear all discussion and testimony and all votes of members;

3. at least one member of the commission is physically present at the regular meeting location; and

4. all votes committing funds, finalizing recommendations, and approving contracts are conducted by roll call, so each member’s vote on each issue can be identified and recorded.

(b) Each member of the commission participating in a meeting by telephone or other electronic means is considered present at the meeting for purposes of determining a quorum and participating in all proceedings. If telephone or other electronic means is used to conduct a meeting, the commission, to the extent practical, shall allow a person to monitor the meeting electronically from a remote location. The commission may require the person making such a connection to pay for documented marginal costs that the commission incurs as a result of the additional connection. If telephone or other electronic means is used to conduct a regular, special, or emergency meeting, the commission shall provide notice of the regular meeting location, of the fact that some members may participate by telephone or other electronic means, and of whether and how a person may monitor the meeting electronically from a remote location. The timing and method of providing notice is governed by section 13D.04.
Sec. 14. JUDICIAL PERFORMANCE COMMISSION; FIRST MEETING.

The governor and the chief justice must make initial appointments to the Judicial Performance Commission no later than 90 days following adoption of the constitutional amendment proposed in article 1. The chair of the commission, as appointed by the chief justice, must convene the first full meeting of the commission no later than 30 days after all members of the commission have been appointed.

Sec. 15. REPEALER.

Minnesota Statutes 2006, sections 204B.36, subdivision 5; and 204D.14, subdivision 3, are repealed.

Sec. 16. EFFECTIVE DATE.

Article 2 is effective upon adoption of the constitutional amendment proposed in article 1."

"Section 1. [137.45] STEM CELL RESEARCH.

The University of Minnesota may spend state-appropriated funds on stem cell research.

Sec. 2. [145.427] STATE POLICY FOR STEM CELL RESEARCH.

Subdivision 1. Research use permitted. The policy of the state of Minnesota is that research involving the derivation and use of human embryonic stem cells, human embryonic germ cells, and human adult stem cells from any source, including somatic cell nuclear transplantation, shall be permitted and that full consideration of the ethical and medical implications of this research be given. Research involving the derivation and use of human embryonic stem cells, human embryonic germ cells, and human adult stem cells, including somatic cell nuclear transplantation, shall be reviewed by an approved institutional review board.

Subd. 2. Informed consent. A physician, surgeon, or other health care provider who is treating a patient for infertility shall provide the patient with timely, relevant, and appropriate information sufficient to allow the patient to make an informed and voluntary choice regarding the disposition of any human embryos remaining following the fertility treatment. Any patient to whom information is provided under this subdivision shall be presented with the options of storing any unused embryos, donating the embryos to another individual, discarding the embryos, or donating the remaining embryos for research. Any patient who elects to donate embryos remaining after fertility treatments for research shall provide written consent to that donation.
Subd. 3. Prohibiting sale of fetal tissue; cloning of a human being. (a) A person may not knowingly, for valuable consideration, purchase, sell, or otherwise transfer or obtain, or promote the sale or transfer of, embryonic or cadaveric fetal tissue for research purposes. However, embryonic or cadaveric fetal tissue may be donated for research purposes under this section. For purposes of this subdivision, "valuable consideration" means financial gain or advantage, but does not include reasonable payment for the removal, processing, disposal, preservation, quality control, storage, transplantation, or implantation of embryonic or cadaveric fetal tissue.

(b) Violation of paragraph (a) is a gross misdemeanor.

(c) A person who knowingly engages or assists, directly or indirectly, in the cloning of a human being is guilty of a felony.

As used in this section, "cloning of a human being" means the replication of a human individual by cultivating a cell with genetic material, other than the product of the fertilization of the egg of a human female by the sperm of a human male, through the egg, embryo, fetal, and newborn stages into a new human individual.

MINORITY REPORT

February 15, 2008

We, the undersigned, being a minority of the Committee on Public Safety and Civil Justice, recommend that S. F. No. 100 do pass with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [137.45] STEM CELL RESEARCH.

The University of Minnesota may spend state-appropriated funds on stem cell research pursuant to section 145.427.

Sec. 2. [145.427] STATE POLICY FOR STEM CELL RESEARCH.

Subdivision 1. Definitions. For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given.

(a) "Human embryo" means a living organism of the species Homo sapiens at the earliest stages of development, including the single-celled stage, that is not located in a woman's body.

(b) "Risk of injury" means subjecting a human embryo to risk of injury or death greater than that allowed for research on fetuses in utero under section 46.204(b) of title 45, Code of Federal Regulations.

(c) "Asexual reproduction" means reproduction not initiated by the union of oocyte and sperm.

(d) "Human cloning" means human asexual reproduction accomplished by introducing nuclear material from one or more human somatic cells into a fertilized or unfertilized oocyte whose nuclear material has been removed or inactivated so as to produce a living organism, at any stage of development, that is genetically virtually identical to an existing or previously existing human organism."
(e) "Somatic cell" means a diploid cell obtained or derived from a living or deceased human body at any stage of development.

Subd. 2. Research techniques. (a) The State of Minnesota shall encourage and support basic and applied research to develop techniques for the isolation, derivation, production, testing, and human clinical use of stem cells that may result in improved understanding of or treatments for diseases and other adverse health conditions, including pluripotent stem cells that have the flexibility of embryonic stem cells, whether or not such pluripotent stem cells have an embryonic source, provided that such isolation, derivation, production, testing, or use will not involve the following:

(1) the creation of a human embryo for research purposes;

(2) the destruction of or discarding of, or risk of injury to, a living human embryo; or

(3) the use of any stem cell, the derivation or provision of which would be inconsistent with the standards established in clauses (1) or (2).

Researchers shall prioritize research with the greatest potential for near-term clinical benefit in human patients.

(b) By September 1, 2008, an approved institutional review board shall issue final guidelines implementing this section to ensure that any research supported under this section meets the following requirements:

(1) is clearly consistent with the standards established in paragraph (a) if conducted using human cells, as demonstrated by animal trials or other substantial evidence; and

(2) is prioritized in terms of potential for near-term clinical benefit in human patients, as indicated by substantial evidence from basic research or by substantial clinical evidence, which may include, but is not limited to, evidence of improvement in one or more human patients suffering from illness or injury, as documented in reports by professional medical or scientific associations or in peer-reviewed medical or scientific literature.

Subd. 3. Prohibiting sale of fetal tissue. No person may knowingly, for valuable consideration, purchase, sell, or otherwise transfer or obtain, or promote the sale or transfer of, embryonic or cadaveric fetal tissue for research purposes. For purposes of this subdivision, "valuable consideration" means financial gain or advantage.

Subd. 4. Prohibition on cloning. It shall be unlawful for any person or entity, public or private, to knowingly:

(a) perform or attempt to perform human cloning;

(b) participate in an attempt to perform human cloning;

(c) ship or receive for any purpose an embryo produced by human cloning or any product derived from such embryo; or

(d) ship or receive, in whole or in part, any oocyte, embryo, fetus, or human somatic cell, for the purpose of human cloning.

Subd. 5. Importation. It shall be unlawful for any person or entity, public or private, to knowingly bring into the state for any purpose an embryo produced by human cloning.
Subd. 6. Scientific research. Nothing in this section shall restrict areas of scientific research not specifically prohibited, including research in the use of nuclear transfer or other cloning techniques to produce molecules, DNA, cells other than human embryos, tissues, organs, plants, or animals other than humans.

Subd. 7. Penalties. (a) Any person or entity that knowingly or recklessly violates any provision of this section is guilty of a felony.

(b) Any person or entity that violates any provision of this section, and derives a pecuniary gain from such violation shall be fined up to $1,000,000, or twice the amount of gross gain, at the discretion of the court.

Subd. 8. Severability. If any provision of this section or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held unconstitutional, the remainder of this section and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Amend the title accordingly.
