"Help For Homeowners in Foreclosure

The attorney preparing this foreclosure is: .................................................................

(Associate name, address, phone)

It is being prepared for:

.............................................................................................................................

(lender name, loss mitigation name of employee of servicer or lender that serves as a single point of contact for homeowner to contact, phone number for that employee of servicer or lender)

AS OF [insert date], this lender says that you owe $[insert dollar amount] to bring your mortgage up to date (or "reinstate" your mortgage). You must pay this amount, plus interest and other costs, to keep your house from going through a sheriff's sale. The sheriff's sale is scheduled for [insert date] at [insert time] at [insert place].

Mortgage foreclosure is a complex process. People may contact you with advice and offers to help "save" your home.

Remember: It is important that you learn as much as you can about foreclosure and your situation. Find out about all your options before you make any agreements with anyone about the foreclosure of your home.

Getting Help

As soon as possible, you should contact your lender at the above number to talk about things you might be able to do to prevent foreclosure. You should also consider contacting the foreclosure prevention counselor in your area. A foreclosure prevention counselor can answer your questions, offer free advice, and help you create a plan which makes sense for your situation.

Contact the Minnesota Home Ownership Center at 651-659-9336 or 866-462-6466 or www.hocmn.org or contact the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development at 1-800-569-4287 or www.hud.gov to get the phone number and location of the nearest certified counseling organization. Call today. The longer you wait, the fewer options you may have for a desirable result. ²

Changing the Date of the Sheriff's Sale

You may be able to postpone the sheriff's sale on your home. If you live in your home and it has four units or less, you can postpone the sheriff's sale for five months from the original date of sale if you have a six-month redemption period, or eleven months from the original date of sale if you have a twelve-month redemption period. If you postpone the sheriff's sale, your redemption period will be reduced to five weeks. You must do all of the following things 15 days before the scheduled sheriff's sale:
(1) execute a sworn affidavit of postponement;

(2) record the affidavit in the county recorder and registrar of titles where the mortgage is recorded;

(3) file a copy with the sheriff; and

(4) provide a copy of the recorded affidavit showing the date it was recorded to the attorney foreclosing on the mortgage."

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2013, and applies to foreclosures commenced on or after that date.

Sec. 7. [580.043] MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE DUAL TRACKING PROHIBITED.

Subd. 1. Definitions. (a) For purposes of this section, the terms defined in this section have the meanings given.

(b) "Borrower" means the individual or entity that is liable on the promissory note secured by the mortgage, except that the term does not include:

(1) a person who has surrendered the mortgaged property, as evidenced by either a letter or other written notice confirming the surrender or by delivery of the keys to the property to the mortgage servicer or authorized agent; or

(2) a person who has filed a bankruptcy case under United States Code, title 11, chapter 7, 11, 12, or 13, and the bankruptcy court has not entered an order closing or dismissing the bankruptcy case or granting relief from a stay of foreclosure.

(c) "Complete loan modification request" means a loan modification request that contains a completed application form, documents verifying a borrower's income and assets, an explanation of the borrower's hardship, and documents verifying the borrower's tax information or a signed release for the Internal Revenue Service.

(d) "Dual tracking" means a servicer beginning or continuing a mortgage foreclosure under this chapter after the servicer has received a request by the borrower for a loan modification, forbearance, payment deferral, alternate repayment plan, or deed in lieu of foreclosure and has not accepted or rejected that request.

(e) "Loan modification request" means a written request from a borrower to the borrower's mortgage servicer for a modification of the borrower's mortgage loan in order to prevent an anticipated foreclosure or to suspend or terminate a foreclosure that is in progress.

(f) "Mortgage servicer" means an entity that is responsible for interacting with the borrower, including managing the loan account on a daily basis, such as collecting and crediting periodic loan payments, managing an escrow account, or enforcing the promissory note and mortgage, either as the current owner of the promissory note or as the current owner's authorized agent.

Subd. 2. Applicability. This section applies to mortgage foreclosures on the basis specified in section 580.041, subdivision 1a.

Subd. 3. Prohibition; dual tracking; continuation or commencement of foreclosure after receipt of loan modification request. (a) Upon receipt by a mortgage servicer of a request for a loan modification, forbearance, payment deferral, alternate repayment plan, or deed in lieu of foreclosure from a borrower regarding a mortgage loan for which the mortgage servicer is responsible, the mortgage servicer shall not begin a foreclosure for 90 days or, if a foreclosure of the mortgage loan is in progress, must stop the foreclosure process for 90 days or until the mortgage servicer and borrower have agreed upon and entered into a signed agreement, whichever comes first. The mortgage servicer shall not start or continue a foreclosure, even after the 90 days have passed, unless: (1) the servicer has provided notice to the borrower that the borrower's request has been rejected, including an explanation for why the request was rejected; or (2) the borrower has received a copy of a loan modification, forbearance, payment deferral, alternate repayment plan, or deed in lieu of a foreclosure agreement signed by the servicer.

(b) A mortgage servicer need not consider a loan modification request if the loan modification request is not a complete loan modification request as defined in subdivision 1, paragraph (e).

Subd. 4. Civil cause of action; dual tracking. A borrower who is the victim of dual tracking by the borrower's mortgage servicer has a civil cause of action against the mortgage servicer for any damages incurred by the borrower as a result of the dual tracking plus the borrower's reasonable attorney fees and costs. The servicer is prohibited from adding monetary judgments and awards under this section to a borrower's mortgage.

Subd. 5. Injunctive relief. A borrower may bring an action for injunctive relief to stop a foreclosure based on a material violation of this section. The injunction shall remain in place until the court determines that the mortgage service has corrected and remedied the violation or violations giving rise to the action for injunctive relief.

Subd. 6. Redemption period. The relief available in this section is available to a borrower during the redemption period under section 580.23. The failure of the servicer to comply with subdivision 3 shall annul a sheriff sale under this chapter.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2013, and applies to foreclosures commenced on or after that date.

Sec. 8. [580.0431] MANDATORY MEDIATION.

Subdivision 1. Mandatory mediation. This section applies to foreclosures of mortgages under chapters 580 and 581 on property consisting of one to four dwelling units, one of which the owner occupies as the owner's principal place of residency. Prior to beginning a mortgage foreclosure and before notice of the pendency under section 580.032, subdivision 3, or the lis pendens for a foreclosure under chapter 581 is recorded, a party foreclosing a mortgage must participate in mandatory mediation and provide to the mortgagor information contained in a form prescribed in section 580.022, subdivision 1. The servicer must provide all the relevant contact information for the servicer and any representative of the servicer who will attend the mediation and the contact information for the borrower to the Office of Administrative Hearings. The borrower must contact the Office of Administrative Hearings to confirm participation in the mediation within ten days of the scheduled mediation. The servicer shall add a $40 fee to the borrower's loan once the borrower and servicer have participated in mediation.

Subd. 2. Counseling. Prior to attending the mandatory mediation, the borrower must contact the foreclosure prevention counseling agency described in section 580.041, subdivisions 2 and 2a, to learn about the foreclosure prevention services available to them.

Subd. 3. Representation. (a) The borrower may have representation at the mediation conference. The representation may be an attorney, advocate, or other individual trained in housing counseling.

(b) The servicer must send a representative with the authority to negotiate a resolution.

Subd. 4. Office of Administrative Hearings. (a) The Office of Administrative Hearings shall provide mediation to servicers and borrowers as required in this section. The Office of Administrative Hearings shall within ten business days of receiving a request for mediation assign a mediator which may be a judge, an attorney, or other staff trained in mediation. The Office of Administrative Hearings must provide the following information to the borrower, the servicer, and any subordinate mortgage lienholder within 20 days of receipt of the request:
(1) what documents must be provided prior to mediation to the Office of Administrative Hearings;

(2) when the mediation will take place;

(3) where the mediation will take place;

(4) who may attend the mediation; and

(5) any rights and responsibilities of the parties to the mediation.

(b) The Office of Administrative Hearings is immune from civil liability for actions within the scope of its position under this chapter. The mediators assigned do not have a duty to advise the parties of their legal rights. Nothing in this chapter is a limitation to the immunity that otherwise extends to the Office of Administrative Hearings that otherwise exists under the law.

(c) The mediation must occur no later than 45 days after receiving contact from the servicer requesting the mediation with the Office of Administrative Hearings.

(d) The data regarding the finances and mortgages for these mediations that is created, collected, and maintained by the Office of Administrative Hearings is private data on individuals as defined by section 13.02, subdivision 12.

(e) A mediation agreement signed by both parties may be submitted to any court having jurisdiction over the parties and shall be enforced by any court having jurisdiction over the parties.

(f) The servicer shall submit a mediation fee of $160 to the Office of Administrative Hearings at or before the initial mediation meeting.

Subd. 5. Disposition of fees. Mediation fees collected by the Office of Administrative Hearings under this section must be deposited in the administrative hearings account in the state treasury and are appropriated to the office for the purposes of this section.

Subd. 6. Good faith required. (a) The parties must engage in mediation in good faith. Not participating in good faith includes:

(1) failure to attend and participate in mediation sessions without cause;

(2) failure to provide full information regarding the financial obligations of the parties and other creditors;

(3) failure of the creditor to designate a representative to participate in the mediation with authority to make binding commitments;

(4) lack of a written statement of debt restructuring alternatives and a statement of reasons why alternatives are unacceptable to one of the parties; and

(5) other similar behavior that evidences lack of good faith by a party.

A failure to agree to reduce, restructure, refinance, or forgive debt is not, in itself, evidence of lack of good faith by the creditor.
(b) If the mediator determines that either party is not participating in good faith as defined in subdivision 1, the mediator must file an affidavit indicating the reasons for the finding with the attorney general and with parties to the mediation.

Subd. 7. Creditor's bad faith; court supervision. If the mediator finds the creditor has not participated in mediation in good faith, the debtor may require court-supervised mandatory mediation by filing the affidavit with the district court of the county of the debtor's residence with a request for court supervision of mediation and serving a copy of the request on the creditor. Upon request, the court shall require both parties to mediate under the supervision of the court in good faith for a period of not more than 180 days. All mortgage foreclosure proceedings must be suspended during this period. The court may issue orders necessary to effect good faith mediation. Following the mediation period, if the court finds the creditor has not participated in mediation in good faith, the court shall by order suspend the creditor's mortgage foreclosure proceeding for an additional period of 180 days. A creditor found by the mediator not to have participated in good faith shall pay the attorney fees and costs of the debtor requesting court supervision, in addition to further suspension of the creditor's mortgage foreclosure proceeding.

Subd. 8. Debtor's lack of good faith. A creditor may immediately proceed with the creditor's mortgage foreclosure proceedings upon receipt of a mediator's affidavit of a debtor's lack of good faith.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2013, and applies to foreclosures commenced on or after that date.
