"Subd. 3. Refusal to participate or support solemnization; protection of religious belief. (a) Except for secular business activities engaged in by a religious association, religious corporation, or religious society, the conduct of which is unrelated to the religious and educational purposes for which it is organized, no religious association, religious corporation, or religious society shall be required to provide goods or services at the solemnization or celebration of any civil marriage or be subject to civil liability or any action by the state that penalizes, fines, or withholds any benefit to the religious association, religious corporation, or religious society under the laws of this state, including, but not limited to, laws regarding tax exempt status, for failing or refusing to provide goods or services at the solemnization or celebration of any civil marriage, if providing such goods or services would cause the religious association, religious corporation, or religious society to violate their sincerely held religious beliefs.

(b) The exception in paragraph (a) applies to employees, agents, and volunteers acting within the capacity of their employment or responsibilities with a religious association, religious corporation, or religious society."

The motion prevailed and the amendment to the amendment was adopted.

The question recurred on the FitzSimmons amendment, as amended, to H. F. No. 1054, the first engrossment, as amended. The motion prevailed and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

Kelly and Kieffer moved to amend H. F. No. 1054, the first engrossment, as amended, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 2012, section 363A.27, is amended to read:

363A.27 CONSTRUCTION OF LAW.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to:

(1) mean the state of Minnesota condones homosexuality or bisexuality or any equivalent lifestyle;

(2) authorize or permit the promotion of homosexuality or bisexuality in education institutions or require the teaching in education institutions of homosexuality or bisexuality as an acceptable lifestyle; or

(3) authorize or permit the use of numerical goals or quotas, or other types of affirmative action programs, with respect to homosexuality or bisexuality in the administration or enforcement of the provisions of this chapter; or

(4) authorize the recognition of or the right of marriage between persons of the same sex.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 2012, section 517.01, is amended to read:

517.01 MARRIAGE—A CIVIL UNION CONTRACT.

Marriage A civil union, so far as its validity in law is concerned, is a civil contract between a man and a woman two individuals, recognized by the state of Minnesota, to which the consent of the parties individuals, capable in law of contracting, is essential. Lawful marriage may be contracted only between persons of the opposite sex and only
A civil union contract is only valid when a license has been obtained as provided by law and when the marriage civil union is contracted in the presence of two witnesses and solemnized by one authorized, or whom one or both of the parties in good faith believe to be authorized, so to do. Marriages subsequent to April 26, 1941, not so contracted shall be null and void.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 2012, section 517.02, is amended to read:

517.02 PERSONS CAPABLE OF CONTRACTING.

Every person who has attained the full age of 18 years is capable in law of contracting marriage a civil union, if otherwise competent. A person of the full age of 16 years may, with the consent of the person’s legal custodial parents, guardian, or the court, as provided in section 517.08, receive a civil union license to marry, when, after a careful inquiry into the facts and the surrounding circumstances, the person’s application for a license and consent for marriage a civil union of a minor form is approved by the judge of the district court of the county in which the person resides. If the judge of the district court of the county in which the person resides is absent from the county and has not by order assigned another judge or a retired judge to act in the judge’s stead, then the court commissioner or any judge of district court of the county may approve the application for a license.

The consent for marriage civil union license of a minor must be in the following form:

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 2012, section 517.03, is amended to read:

517.03 PROHIBITED MARRIAGES AND CIVIL UNION CONTRACTS.

Subdivision 1. General. (a) The following marriages and civil union contracts are prohibited:

(1) a marriage or civil union entered into before the dissolution of an earlier marriage or civil union contract of one of the parties individuals becomes final, as provided in section 518.145 or by the law of the jurisdiction where the dissolution was granted;

(2) a marriage or civil union between an ancestor and a descendant, or between a brother and a sister, whether the relationship is by the half or the whole blood or by adoption; and

(3) a marriage or civil union between an uncle and a niece, between an aunt and a nephew, or between first cousins, whether the relationship is by the half or the whole blood, except as to marriages permitted by the established customs of aboriginal cultures; and

(4) a marriage between persons of the same sex.

(b) A marriage entered into by persons of the same sex, either under common law or statute, that is recognized by another state or foreign jurisdiction is void in this state and contractual rights granted by virtue of the marriage or its termination are unenforceable in this state.

Subd. 2. Developmentally disabled persons; consent by commissioner of human services. Developmentally disabled persons committed to the guardianship of the commissioner of human services and developmentally disabled persons committed to the conservatorship of the commissioner of human services in which the terms of the conservatorship limit the right to marry enter a civil union, may marry enter a civil union on receipt of written consent of the commissioner. The commissioner shall grant consent unless it appears from the commissioner’s investigation that the marriage civil union is not in the best interest of the ward or conservatee and the public. The local registrar in the county where the application for a license is made by the ward or conservatee shall not issue the license unless the local registrar has received a signed copy of the consent of the commissioner of human services.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 2012, section 517.07, is amended to read:

517.07 LICENSE.

Before any persons are joined in marriage a civil union in Minnesota, a license shall be obtained from the local registrar of any county within Minnesota. Subd. 1a. Form. Application for a marriage civil union license shall be made by both of the parties individuals upon a form provided for the purpose and shall contain the following information:
(1) the full name of the parties and the sex of each party.
(2) their post office addresses and county and state of residence;
(3) their full ages;
(4) if either party has previously been married, the party's married name, and the date, place, and court in which the marriage was dissolved or annulled or the date and place of death of the former spouse;
(5) if either individual has previously been a party to a civil union, the date of the civil union, and the place and court in which the civil union was dissolved;
(6) if either party is a minor, the name and address of the minor's parents or guardian;
(7) whether the parties are related to each other, and, if so, their relationship;
(8) the address of the bride and groom after the marriage is entered to which the local registrar shall send a certified copy of the marriage certificate.
(9) if one or both of the parties to the marriage license has a felony conviction under Minnesota law or the law of another state or federal jurisdiction, the parties shall provide to the county proof of service upon the prosecuting authority and, if applicable, the attorney general, as required by section 259.13; and
(10) notice that a party who has a felony conviction under Minnesota law or the law of another state or federal jurisdiction may not use a different name after marriage except as authorized by section 259.13, and that doing so is a gross misdemeanor.

Subd. 1b. Term of license; fee; premarital education. (a) The local registrar shall examine upon oath the parties applying for a license relative to the legality of the contemplated marriage. If one party is unable to appear in person, the party appearing may complete the absent applicant's information. The local registrar shall provide a copy of the marriage application to the party who is unable to appear, who must verify the accuracy of the appearing party's information in a notarized statement. The marriage license must not be released until the verification statement has been received by the local registrar. If at the expiration of a five-day period, on being satisfied that there is no legal impediment to it, including the restriction contained in section 259.13, the local registrar shall issue the license, containing the full names of the parties before and after marriage, the civil union is entered, and county and state of residence, with the county seal attached, and make a record of the date of issuance. The license shall be valid for a period of six months. Except as provided in paragraph (c), the local registrar shall collect from the applicant a fee of $115 for administering the oath, issuing, recording, and filing all papers required, and preparing and transmitting to the state registrar of vital statistics the reports of marriage required by this section. If the license should not be used within the period of six months due to illness or other extenuating circumstances, it may be surrendered to the local registrar for cancellation, and in that case a new license shall issue upon request of the parties of the original license without fee. A local registrar who knowingly issues or signs a marriage license in any manner other than as provided in this section shall pay to the aggrieved an amount not to exceed $1,000.
(b) In case of emergency or extraordinary circumstances, a judge of the district court of the county in which the application is made may authorize the license to be issued at any time before expiration of the five-day period required under paragraph (a). COURT ORDER AND AUTHORIZATION:

STATE OF MINNESOTA, COUNTY OF .................. (insert county name)

After reviewing the above application, I am satisfied that an emergency or extraordinary circumstance exists that justifies the issuance of the marriage or civil union license before the expiration of five days from the date of the application. IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the local registrar is authorized and directed to issue the license forthwith.

............................................................................................................

............................................................................................................ (date).
(c) The marriage license fee for parties who have completed at least 12 hours of premarital education is $40. In order to qualify for the reduced license fee, the parties must submit at the time of applying for the marriage license a statement that is signed, dated, and notarized or marked with a church seal from the person who provided the premarital education on their letterhead confirming that it was received. The premarital education must be provided by a licensed or ordained minister or the minister’s designee, a person authorized to solemnize marriages under section 517.18, or a person authorized to practice marriage and family therapy under section 148B.33. The education must include the use of a premarital inventory and the teaching of communication and conflict management skills.

(d) The statement from the person who provided the premarital education under paragraph (c) must be in the following form:

"I, ................................ (name of educator), confirm that .......................... (names of both parties) received at least 12 hours of premarital education that included the use of a premarital inventory and the teaching of communication and conflict management skills. I am a licensed or ordained minister, a person authorized to solemnize marriages under Minnesota Statutes, section 517.18, or a person licensed to practice marriage and family therapy under Minnesota Statutes, section 148B.33."

The names of the parties in the educator’s statement must be identical to the legal names of the parties as they appear in the marriage license application. Notwithstanding section 138.17, the educator’s statement must be retained for seven years, after which time it may be destroyed.

(e) (c) If section 259.13 applies to the request for a marriage civil union license, the local registrar shall grant the marriage civil union license without the requested name change. Alternatively, the local registrar may delay the granting of the marriage civil union license until the party individual with the conviction:

(1) certifies under oath that 30 days have passed since service of the notice for a name change upon the prosecuting authority and, if applicable, the attorney general and no objection has been filed under section 259.13; or

(2) provides a certified copy of the court order granting it. The parties individuals seeking the marriage license shall have the right to choose to have the license granted without the name change or to delay its granting pending further action on the name change request.

Subd. 1c. Disposition of license fee. (a) Of the marriage civil union contract license fee collected pursuant to subdivision 1b, paragraph (a), $25 must be retained by the county. The local registrar must pay $90 to the commissioner of management and budget to be deposited as follows:

(1) $55 in the general fund;

(2) $3 in the state government special revenue fund to be appropriated to the commissioner of public safety for parenting time centers under section 119A.37;

(3) $2 in the special revenue fund to be appropriated to the commissioner of health for developing and implementing the MN ENABL program under section 145.9255;

(4) $25 in the special revenue fund is appropriated to the commissioner of employment and economic development for the displaced homemaker program under section 116L.96; and

(5) $5 in the special revenue fund, which is appropriated to the Board of Regents of the University of Minnesota for the Minnesota couples on the brink project under section 137.32.
(b) Of the $40 fee under subdivision 1b, paragraph (b), $25 must be retained by the county. The local registrar must pay $15 to the commissioner of management and budget to be deposited as follows:

(1) $5 as provided in paragraph (a), clauses (2) and (3); and

(2) $10 in the special revenue fund is appropriated to the commissioner of employment and economic development for the displaced homemaker program under section 116L.96.

Subd. 4. Report. The local registrar of each county shall annually report to the Department of Health the number of marriage licenses issued in the county for which the fee in subdivision 1b, paragraph (a), was paid and the number for which the fee in subdivision 1b, paragraph (b), was paid.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 2012, section 517.10, is amended to read:

517.10 CERTIFICATE; WITNESSES.

The person solemnizing a marriage shall prepare and sign a certificate. The certificate shall contain the full names of the parties, the birth dates of the parties, and county and state of residences of the parties, and the date and place of the marriage. The certificate shall also contain the signatures of at least two of the witnesses present at the time the civil union contract was signed, who shall be at least 16 years of age. The person solemnizing the marriage shall immediately make a record of such marriage and file such certificate with the local registrar of the county in which the license was issued within five days after the ceremony.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 2012, section 517.101, is amended to read:

517.101 CERTIFIED COPIES OF MARRIAGE CERTIFICATE.

Within ten days of receipt of the certificate and after recording the certificate the local registrar shall prepare a certified copy of the certificate to be mailed to the married parties subject to the civil union contract.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 2012, section 517.20, is amended to read:

517.20 APPLICATION.

Except as provided in section 517.03, subdivision 1, paragraph (b), (a) All marriages and civil unions contracted within this state prior to March 1, 1979 or outside this state that were valid at the time of the contract or subsequently validated by the laws of the place in which they were contracted or by the domicile of the parties are valid in this state.

(b) Marriages that are valid under paragraph (a) are treated as civil union contracts under this chapter and the laws of the state of Minnesota.

Sec. 10. [517.22] MARRIAGE BY RELIGIOUS INSTITUTION NOT PROHIBITED.

(a) Nothing in this chapter prohibits a religious institution or cultural group from performing a ceremony of marriage according to any applicable rules or customs of the institution or group. A licensed or ordained minister may be a witness to the signing of a civil union contract as required by section 517.10.
(b) Notwithstanding a marriage ceremony performed by a religious institution or cultural group, the individuals participating in that ceremony are not entitled to the rights, benefits, or privileges of Minnesota law resulting from a civil union contract until such civil union contract is lawfully signed and entered as provided in this chapter.

(c) This chapter does not alter or affect the protections or exemptions provided in chapter 363A for a religious association, educational institution, business, labor union, place of public accommodation, employer, or other person. This chapter does not affect the exemptions provided in section 363A.26.

Sec. 11. [517.23] MEANING OF CIVIL UNION CONTRACT.

Wherever the term "marriage," "marital," "marry," or "married" is used in Minnesota statute in reference to the rights, obligations, or privileges of a couple under law, the term shall include a civil union contract, or individuals subject to a civil union contract, as established by this chapter. A term subject to this definition must also be interpreted in reference to the context in which it appears, but may not be interpreted to limit or exclude any individual who has entered a valid civil union contract under this chapter.

Sec. 12. [517.24] EFFECT ON FEDERAL LAW AND IN OTHER JURISDICTIONS.

To the extent that the term "marriage" is given legal effect in federal law or the law of another jurisdiction, a Minnesota civil union is the equivalent of a marriage and individuals who have entered into a civil union contract shall be treated as "spouses" or shall be treated as "husband" and "wife" for purposes of application to those laws.

Sec. 13. REPEALER.

Minnesota Statutes 2012, sections 517.04; 517.041; 517.05; 517.06; 517.09; 517.13; 517.14; 517.15; 517.16; and 517.18, are repealed.

Sec. 14. EFFECTIVE DATE.

Sections 1 to 13 are effective August 1, 2013, and apply to civil union contracts applied for on or after that date. After August 1, 2013, the local registrar of each county is prohibited from accepting or processing an application for a marriage license that is inconsistent with the requirements of this act.
