The motion prevailed.

H. F. No. 2933 was read for the second time.

O'Neill moved to amend H. F. No. 2933 as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 2016, section 3.855, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. Definitions. (a) "Commission" means the Legislative Coordinating Commission or a legislative commission established by the coordinating commission, as provided in section 3.305, subdivision 6, to exercise the powers and discharge the duties of the coordinating commission under this section or other law requiring action by the coordinating commission on matters of public employment or compensation.

(b) "Ratification" means approval in identical form by majority vote of the Minnesota House of Representatives and Minnesota Senate and includes contingent ratification by which no ratification exists absent the fulfillment of an express condition including, but not limited to, the enactment of a law.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective the day following final enactment.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 2016, section 3.855, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. State employee negotiations. (a) The commissioner of management and budget shall regularly advise the commission on the progress of collective bargaining activities with state employees under the state Public Employment Labor Relations Act. During negotiations, the commission may make recommendations to the commissioner as it deems appropriate but no recommendation shall impose any obligation or grant any right or privilege to the parties.

(b) The commissioner shall submit to the chair of the commission any negotiated collective bargaining agreements, arbitration awards, compensation plans, or salaries for legislative approval or disapproval. Negotiated agreements shall be submitted within five days of the date of approval by the commissioner or the date of approval by the affected state employees, whichever occurs later. Arbitration awards shall be submitted within five days of their receipt by the commissioner. If the commission disapproves a collective bargaining agreement, award, compensation plan, or salary, the commission shall specify in writing to the parties those portions with which it disagrees and its reasons. If the commission approves a collective bargaining agreement, award, compensation plan, or salary, it shall submit the matter to the legislature to be accepted or rejected under this section.

(c) The commissioner shall submit to the chair of the commission any negotiated or otherwise proposed changes affecting the provision of insurance to state employees, including any changes to coverage and costs. Any changes must be submitted to the commission within five days of approval of the commissioner. If the commission disapproves changes to state employee insurance, the commission shall specify in writing to the commissioner those portions with which it disagrees and its reasons. The commissioner must not submit to the commission any collective bargaining agreement or compensation plan that includes any changes to state employee insurance previously disapproved by the commission.

~~(e)~~ (d) When the legislature is not in session, the commission may give interim approval to a negotiated collective bargaining agreement, salary, compensation plan, or arbitration award. ~~When the legislature is not in session, failure of the commission to disapprove a collective bargaining agreement or arbitration award within 30 days constitutes approval.~~ The commission shall submit the negotiated collective bargaining agreements, salaries, compensation plans, or arbitration awards for which it has provided approval to the entire legislature for ratification at a special legislative session called to consider them or at its next regular legislative session as provided in this section. Approval or disapproval by the commission is not binding on the legislature.

~~(d)~~ (e) When the legislature is not in session, the proposed collective bargaining agreement, arbitration decision, salary, or compensation plan must be implemented upon its approval by the commission, and state employees covered by the proposed agreement or arbitration decision do not have the right to strike while the interim approval is in effect. Wages and economic fringe benefit increases provided for in the agreement or arbitration decision paid in accordance with the interim approval by the commission are not affected, but the wages or benefit increases must cease to be paid or provided effective upon the rejection of the agreement, arbitration decision, salary, or compensation plan, or upon adjournment of the legislature without acting on it.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective the day following final enactment.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 2016, section 3.855, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. Voluntary contributions. (a) This section applies to an exclusive representative of employees whose collective bargaining agreements are subject to approval under this section.

(b) An exclusive representative may not require a contribution to a candidate, principal campaign committee, political party, political committee, political fund, or political action committee as a condition of membership or participation in the exclusive representative.

(c) An exclusive representative wishing to make expenditures for political purposes must make the expenditures only from a separate political fund that is apart from any fund or account containing money received by an exclusive representative as dues. The exclusive representative must ensure that each contribution to the political fund is made voluntarily and specifically to that fund. An exclusive representative may not transfer money paid as dues to its political fund. For purposes of this section, "political purposes" means an act done with the intent or in a way to influence or tend to influence, directly or indirectly, any person to refrain from voting or to vote for or against any ballot question, or for or against any candidate for public office at any caucus, political convention, primary, or election.
