Subd. 2. Requirements; factors. A hospital must assign nursing personnel to each patient care unit consistent with the hospital's staffing plan. For each patient care unit, a direct-care registered nurse shall evaluate the following factors to assess and determine the adequacy of staffing levels to meet patient care needs:

- (1) composition of skill mix and roles available;
- (2) patient acuity;
- (3) experience level of registered nurse staff;
- (4) unit activity level, such as admissions, discharges, and transfers;

- (6) availability of a registered nurse to accept an assignment; and
- (7) nursing intensity.

Subd. 3. Prohibited acts. A hospital shall not:

(1) assign a direct-care registered nurse to a hospital unit unless the direct-care registered nurse is able to demonstrate current competence in providing care in that unit and has received orientation to that hospital's unit sufficient to provide competent care to the patients in that unit;

(2) assign nursing personnel from a supplemental nursing services agency to provide patient care on a hospital unit until the agency nurse is able to demonstrate validated competence in providing care in the assigned unit, and has received orientation to that hospital's unit sufficient to provide competent care to patients in that unit; or

(3) the availability of additional staffing resources; and

(4) the hospital-wide census and staffing.

(b) If the staffing inadequacies cannot be resolved and resources cannot be reallocated by the manager or administrative supervisor after considering the factors in paragraph (a), the hospital shall call in extra staff to ensure adequate staffing to meet safe patient standards.

(c) Until extra staff arrive and begin to receive patient assignments:

(1) the hospital must suspend nonemergency admissions and elective surgeries that routinely lead to in-patient hospitalization;

(2) the charge nurse for the unit with inadequate staffing levels is authorized to close the unit to new patient admissions and in-hospital transfers; and

(3) a direct-care registered nurse is authorized to refuse an assignment that is unsafe, in the nurse's professional judgment.

Sec. 10. [144.592] RETALIATION PROHIBITED.

A hospital shall not retaliate against or discipline a direct-care registered nurse, either formally or informally, for:

(1) refusing to accept an assignment if, in good faith and in the nurse's professional judgment, the nurse determined that the assignment is unsafe for patients due to patient acuity and nursing intensity; or

PROTEST AND DISSENT

Pursuant to Article IV, Section 11 of the Minnesota Constitution, we the undersigned Members of the Minnesota House of Representatives register our protest and dissent against Minority Leader Melissa Hortman for her divisive statements made on Monday, April 3, 2017 during debate on Senate File 803.

Minority Leader Hortman's statements needlessly invoked the race and gender of her colleagues, and called into question the motives of members during a lengthy floor debate.

Her statements stand in direct violation of Mason's Chapter 13, Section 124 which limits debate to the question before the House and prohibits invocation of personalities, and Mason's Chapter 12, Section 114 which prohibits members from questioning the motives of colleagues. Her statements were deeply divisive and beneath the dignity of the Minnesota House of Representatives.

We the undersigned Members of the House of Representatives admonish Minority Leader Hortman for her statements. We implore Minority Leader Hortman to apologize for her actions and strive to repair the damage she has caused to the collaborative work environment at the Minnesota House of Representatives.

Further, pursuant to Article IV, Section 11 of the Minnesota Constitution, we direct that our protest and dissent be entered into the Journal of the House of Representatives.
