H. F. No. 1242 was reported to the House.

Swedzinski moved to amend H. F. No. 1242, the first engrossment, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [415.19] NOTICE OF PROPOSED ORDINANCES TO BUSINESSES.

Subdivision 1. Definitions. For the purposes of this section:

(1) "city" means a statutory or home rule charter city;

(2) "electronic notification system" means an electronic notification system operated by the city that distributes general city information or notices through e-mail; and

(3) "proposed ordinance" means a proposed new ordinance or a proposed amendment to an ordinance.

Subd. 2. Posting. (a) If a city posts ordinances on the city's Web site, the city must also post proposed ordinances on the Web site at least ten days before the city council meeting at which the proposed ordinance is first discussed.

(b) If a city does not have an electronic notification system, the city must post notice of a proposed ordinance in the same location as other public notices are posted at least ten days before the city council meeting at which the proposed ordinance is first discussed.

Subd. 3. Individual notice by e-mail. (a) If a city has an electronic notification system, the city must notify any person that has signed up for e-mail notification of proposed ordinances at least ten days before the city council meeting at which the proposed ordinance is first discussed.

(b) If a city has an electronic notification system, the city must notify a person of the notification procedure at the time the person applies for a new business license or license renewal.

Subd. 4. Failure to provide notice. Failure to provide notice described in this section does not invalidate the ordinance or amendment to an ordinance adopted.

Subd. 5. Minimum requirements. The requirements in this section are minimum requirements. A city may provide more notice if it has the ability to do so."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to local government; requiring notice of proposed city ordinances; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 415."

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.
