House Republicans keep Seifert as their leader

Rep. Marty Seifert (R-Marshall) was elected Saturday to lead the House Republican caucus during the 2009-2010 legislative session, a position he held during the previous session.

As minority leader, Seifert's role is to act as strategist for his party's agenda and articulate the caucus opinion on the House floor.

Seifert was first elected to the Minnesota House in 1996.
