

however, for items that were marked as nonreturnable or future nonreturnable when ordered.

- 4 Definition. Limits the definition of "outdoor power equipment" so that it does not include motorcycles, boats, and other vehicles.
- 5 Obligation to repurchase. Adds reasonable assembly charges to what must be paid to a dealer for its purchase of heavy or utility equipment when a dealership is terminated.
- 6 Repair parts. Increases, from 85 percent to 95 percent, the percentage of the price that the manufacturer is required to pay to the dealer for returned repair parts. Again, adds data processing and communications hardware and software and repair tools and signage to the buyback requirements.
- 7 Payment; interest. Regarding heavy and utility equipment, shortens from 90 days to 60 days the time in which repurchase must be completed, but will now "start the clock" when the manufacturer receives the returned equipment, rather than from when the retailer returns it.
- 8 Failure to pay sums specified on cancellation of contracts; liability. Conforming changes.
- 9 Exceptions. With regard to heavy and utility equipment, changes buyback exceptions similarly to what's done in section 3.
