

HOUSE RESEARCH

Bill Summary

FILE NUMBER: H.F. 1172

DATE: April 7, 2003

Version: First engrossment

Authors: Kuisle and others

Subject: Archeologists not required for projects where historic or archaeological sites only suspected

Analyst: John Williams, 651-296-5045

This publication can be made available in alternative formats upon request. Please call 651-296-6753 (voice); or the Minnesota State Relay Service at 1-800-627-3529 (TTY) for assistance. Summaries are also available on our website at: www.house.mn/hrd.

Deletes the requirement that a government agency must use professional archaeological services whenever the existence of archaeological or historic sites is suspected on public lands or waters, and substitutes a requirement that such use must be done if the existence of archaeological or historic sites is predicted to exist based on scientific investigation.