Section

- 1 License applications; collection of social security numbers. Amends § 97A.482. Requires the commissioners of Human Services and Natural Resources to request a waiver from the Secretary of Health and Human Services to exclude any applicant for noncommercial game and fish licenses under age 16 from the requirement to provide their Social Security number on the license application. Federal law requires the state to collect Social Security numbers on game and fish license applications for purposes of child support enforcement.
