Section

- 1 Procedure. Amends the law governing appointments to state agencies that require Senate confirmation. Provides that if the Senate neither confirms nor rejects an appointment before the Senate adjourns the annual regular session to which the appointment was submitted, the Senate may not act on the appointment. However, if an appointment is submitted within 20 days before adjournment of a regular session, the Senate may act on the appointment within 20 days after the beginning of the next regular annual session.
