Overview

A school district may raise additional funds by having its voters approve an operating referendum.

This bill authorizes the Willow River school district to recognize 50 percent of its referendum levy passed during a September 2006 election into the previous fiscal year.

Section

- 1 Willow River; forward shifting referendum revenue. Authorizes Independent School District No. 577, Willow River to forward shift 50 percent of its referendum levy from fiscal year 2008 into fiscal year 2007 and continue this revenue shift for the length of any referendum approved during a September 2006 election.
