Overview

This bill adds to a list of things that insurance adjustors working for an insurance company are prohibited from doing in connection with auto insurance claims.

Section

Prohibitions on insurer. Prohibits insurance adjustors (or others) representing an insurance company from:

(e) adjusting a disputed damage appraisal made by a repair shop without physically inspecting the vehicle;

(f) acting on behalf of the insured in determining the parts and components necessary to do a satisfactory repair; and

(g) specifying the use of a specific vendor as the source of parts or other materials needed for the repair.
