Overview

Requires school boards to employ licensed teachers for their early childhood family education programs. Allows the Board of Teaching to grant an applicant a variance to teach early childhood family education (ECFE) courses. This was the general practice before a change was made to the ECFE statute in 2007.

Section

- 1 Teachers. Amends § 124D.13, subd. 11. Requires school boards to employ licensed teachers for their early childhood family education programs. Allows the state Board of Teaching to grant an applicant a variance, consistent with applicable law and rule.
