Overview

This bill modifies MA provisions related to quality assurance.

Section

- 1 Quality assurance system established. Amends § 256B.095. Removes the June 30, 2014 expiration date for the quality assurance system. Effective July 1, 2013, allows a provider of service located in a non-opted-in county to opt-in to the quality assurance system provided the county where services are provided indicates its agreement with a county with an agreement with DHS. Makes this section effective July 1, 2013.
- 2 Membership. Amends § 256B.0951, subd. 1. Removes language making the quality assurance commission expire on June 30, 2014.
- 3 Commission's authority to recommend variances of licensing standards. Amends § 256B.0951, subd. 4. Expands the alternative licensing system from programs for persons with developmental disabilities to programs for persons with disabilities.
- 4 Notification. Amends § 256B.0952, subd. 1. Makes conforming changes related to allowing providers to opt-in to the quality assurance system.
- 5 Quality assurance teams. Amends § 256B.0952, subd. 5. Modifies phrasing and removes language specifying counties will pay team members for time spent on quality assurance.
- 6 Duties of the commissioner of human services. Amends § 256B.0955. Makes conforming changes related to expanding the alternative licensing system. Makes this section effective July 1, 2013.

Section

- 7 Scope. Amends § 256B.097, subd. 1. Modifies the list of disability services eligible to be part of the quality assurance system by including services licensed under section 245D (home and community-based services standards).
- 8 State quality council. Amends § 256B.097, subd. 3. Modifies provisions related to the State Quality Council.
- 9 Repealer. Repeals Minnesota Statutes, section 256B.096, subds. 1 (scope), 2 (stakeholder advisory group), 3 (annual survey of service recipients), and 4 (improvements for incident reporting, investigation, analysis, and follow-up).
