Page 154, delete section 4 and insert:

"Sec. 4. [237.417] PERSONAL INFORMATION; PROHIBITION.

Subdivision 1. Definitions. (a) For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them.

(b) "Covered entity" means an entity, including a search engine service, social media, or other Web-based application, that collects personally identifiable information from a consumer by means of the Internet.

(c) "Express approval" means an affirmative act of the consumer provided in writing or by electronic means. The affirmative act providing express approval must be made in a separate document or form that contains no approval by a consumer of any other contractual provision.

(d) "Internet service provider" has the meaning given in section 325M.01, subdivision 3.

(e) "Minnesota facilities" means the facilities of a telecommunications or Internet service provider covered by or subject to a franchise agreement, right-of-way agreement, or other contract with the state of Minnesota or a political subdivision.

(f) "Personally identifiable information" means information that identifies:

(1) a consumer by physical or electronic address or telephone number;

(2) a consumer as having requested or obtained specific materials or services from an Internet service provider;

(3) Internet or online sites visited by a consumer; or

(4) any of the contents of a consumer's data-storage devices.

(g) "Telecommunications service provider" has the meaning given in section 237.01, subdivision 6b.

Subd. 2. Service provider; prohibition. A telecommunications or Internet service provider that has entered into a franchise agreement, right-of-way agreement, or other contract with the state of Minnesota or a political subdivision may not sell, share, or otherwise distribute personally identifiable information from a consumer, or use such information for direct advertising or other content, without express approval from the consumer.

Subd. 3. Covered entity; prohibition. A covered entity may not sell, share, or otherwise distribute personally identifiable information from any Minnesota consumer, or use such information for direct advertising, without express approval of the consumer if the covered entity used Minnesota facilities to obtain personally identifiable information from any Minnesota consumer, even if the covered entity was not a party to a contract with the state of Minnesota at the time the personally identifiable information was obtained. This provision applies to personally identifiable information obtained from any Minnesota consumer, even if the personally identifiable information was not obtained through the use of Minnesota facilities.

"Sec. 5. [237.418] DIGITAL DEVICE MICROPHONE; CONDITIONS FOR REMOTE ACCESS.

Subdivision 1. Definitions. (a) For the purposes of this section, the terms in this subdivision have the meanings given them.

(b) "Digital device" means a smartphone, tablet, television, computer, car, toy, home appliance, or any other device that contains a microphone that can be activated remotely by a private entity without the knowledge of the user and can transmit sound from the location of the digital device to a remote location where it can be recorded and stored.

(c) "Private entity" means any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, association, or other group, however organized. "Private entity" does not include a state or local government agency.

(d) "User" means a person who purchases, leases, or otherwise regularly uses a digital device.

Subd. 2. Digital device microphone; requirements for access. No private entity may activate or enable, cause to be activated or enabled, or otherwise use a digital device's microphone to listen to, transmit, store, or disclose information unless it first:
(1) informs the user in writing that the microphone in the user's digital device will be activated, enabled, or used by the private entity;

(2) informs the user in writing of the frequency and length of time the microphone will be activated, enabled, or used by the private entity;

(3) informs the user in writing of the specific categories of information the microphone will be listening for, transmitting, and storing;

(4) informs the user in writing of the specific purpose for which the information will be collected, used, or stored, and to whom it may be disclosed; and

(5) receives the informed, written consent of the user, including through electronic means, or the user's authorized agent, representative, or guardian, that:

(i) is in a form distinct and separate from any form setting forth other legal or financial obligations of the user;

(ii) is given in advance of the time the microphone is activated, enabled, or used; and

(iii) runs for a specified period of time or until consent is withdrawn by the user, whichever is sooner.

Subd. 3. Prohibitions. The provisions of this section may not be waived by a user or private entity. Any agreement that does not comply with the applicable provisions of this section is void and unenforceable.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective the day following final enactment.

Anderson, S., moved to amend S. F. No. 605, the unofficial engrossment, as amended, as follows:

"Sec. 67. WAITE PARK; HOTEL INSPECTION.

(a) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary and in addition to any other requirement in law, the city of Waite Park may adopt an ordinance to require a hotel, motel, or lodging establishment operating within the city's jurisdiction to have a valid license issued by the city. The license may prohibit the licensee from:
(1) knowingly allowing a room to be occupied for purposes of sex trafficking;
(2) knowingly allowing a room to be occupied for the purposes of illegal drug activity;
(3) knowingly allowing a room to be occupied by a minor for the consumption of alcoholic beverages;
(4) prohibiting the inspection of the licensed premises;
(5) failing to report observed or suspected illegal activity to the police in a reasonable period of time; and
(6) failure to maintain the licensed premises to all building, fire, mechanical, zoning or licensing codes.

The ordinance may provide for inspections related to the activities the license addresses. The city may collect a reasonable fee related to the cost of issuing the license and conducting inspections.

(b) "Hotel," "motel," and "lodging establishment" are as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 157.15.

(c) The authority in this section does not replace or diminish the authority of the community health board to inspect and license any hotel, motel, or lodging establishment in the city.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective the day following final enactment without local approval, as provided in Minnesota Statutes, section 645.023, subdivision 1, paragraph (a)."

So it was the judgment of the House that the decision of the Speaker should stand.
Halverson withdrew her amendment, as amended, to S. F. No. 605, the unofficial engrossment, as amended.

Wills was excused between the hours of 11:15 p.m. and 11:20 p.m.

Howe was excused for the remainder of today's session.

Hornstein moved to amend S. F. No. 605, the unofficial engrossment, as amended, as follows:

Page 43, after line 30, insert:

“Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 2016, section 16B.04, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Powers and duties, generally. Subject to other provisions of this chapter, the commissioner is authorized to:

(1) supervise, control, review, and approve all state contracts and purchasing, provided that the commissioner may not approve a state contract with, or the purchase of goods from, a vendor who intentionally refuses to do business, or who intentionally discriminates in the basic terms, conditions, or performance of a contract or sale, on the basis of a person's national origin;

(2) provide agencies with supplies and equipment;

(3) investigate and study the management and organization of agencies, and reorganize them when necessary to ensure their effective and efficient operation;

(4) manage and control state property, real and personal;

(5) maintain and operate all state buildings, as described in section 16B.24, subdivision 1;

(6) supervise, control, review, and approve all capital improvements to state buildings and the capitol building and grounds;

(7) provide central mail facilities;

(8) oversee publication of official documents and provide for their sale;

(9) manage and operate parking facilities for state employees and a central motor pool for travel on state business;

(10) provide rental space within the capitol complex for a private day care center for children of state employees. The commissioner shall contract for services as provided in this chapter;

(11) settle state employee workers' compensation claims;

(12) purchase, accept, transfer, warehouse, sell, distribute, or dispose of surplus property in accordance with state and federal rules and regulations. The commissioner may charge a fee to cover any expenses incurred in connection with any of these acts; and
(13) provide and manage a central distribution center for federal and state surplus personal property, as defined in section 16B.2975, and may provide and manage a warehouse facility."
