Baker moved to amend H. F. No. 1500, the second engrossment, as amended, as follows:

Page 9, after line 6, insert:

"Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 2018, section 171.07, subdivision 4, is amended to read:
Subd. 4. Identification card expiration. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the expiration date of a Minnesota identification card is the birthday of the applicant in the fourth year following the date of issuance of the card.

(b) For an applicant age 65 or older:

1. the expiration date of a Minnesota identification card is the birthday of the applicant in the eighth year following the date of issuance of the card; or

2. a noncompliant identification card is valid for the lifetime of the applicant.

(c) For the purposes of paragraph (b), “Minnesota identification card” does not include an enhanced identification card issued to an applicant age 65 or older.

(d) The expiration date for an Under-21 identification card is the cardholder's 21st birthday. The commissioner shall issue an identification card to a holder of an Under-21 identification card who applies for the card, pays the required fee, and presents proof of identity and age, unless the commissioner determines that the applicant is not qualified for the identification card.

(e) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) to (d), the expiration date for an identification card that meets all requirements of the REAL ID Act issued to a person with temporary lawful status is (1) the last day of the person's legal stay in the United States, or (2) one year after issuance if the last day of the person's legal stay is not identified.

(f) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) to (b), the expiration date for a noncompliant identification card that must be marked as provided in subdivision 3, paragraph (g), is the earlier of (1) the birthday of the applicant in the second year following the date of issuance of the card, or (2) as provided in paragraph (d).

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 2018, section 171.27, is amended to read:

171.27 EXPIRATION OF LICENSE; MILITARY EXCEPTION.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the expiration date for each driver's license is the birthday of the driver in the fourth year following the date of issuance of the license. The birthday of the driver shall be as indicated on the application for a driver's license. A license may be renewed on or before expiration or within one year after expiration upon application, payment of the required fee, and passing the examination required of all drivers for renewal. Driving privileges shall be extended or renewed on or preceding the expiration date of an existing driver's license unless the commissioner believes that the licensee is no longer qualified as a driver.

(b) The expiration date for each under-21 license shall be the 21st birthday of the licensee. Upon the licensee attaining the age of 21 and upon the application, payment of the required fee, and passing the examination required of all drivers for renewal, a driver's license shall be issued unless the commissioner determines that the licensee is no longer qualified as a driver.

(c) The expiration date for each provisional license is two years after the date of application for the provisional license.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) to (c), the expiration date for a license that meets all requirements of the REAL ID Act issued to a person with temporary lawful status is (1) the last day of the person's legal stay in the United States, or (2) one year after issuance if the last day of the person's legal stay is not identified.
(e) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) to (c), the expiration date for a license that must be marked as provided in section 171.07, subdivision 1, paragraph (g), is the earlier of (1) the birthday of the applicant in the second year following the date of issuance of the license, or (2) as provided in paragraph (b).

(f) Any valid Minnesota driver's license issued to a person then or subsequently serving outside Minnesota in active military service, as defined in section 190.05, subdivision 5, in any branch or unit of the armed forces of the United States, or the person's spouse, shall continue in full force and effect without requirement for renewal until the date one year following the service member's separation or discharge from active military service, and until the license holder's birthday in the fourth full year following the person's most recent license renewal or, in the case of a provisional license, until the person's birthday in the third full year following the renewal.
