1.3 "Sec. Minnesota Statutes 2018, section 169A.60, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

1.4 Subd. 8. Reissuance of registration plates. (a) The commissioner shall rescind the 1.5 impoundment order of a person subject to an order under this section, other than the violator,
1.6 if:

1.7 (1) the violator had a valid driver's license on the date of the plate impoundment violation
1.8 and the person files with the commissioner an acceptable sworn statement containing the 1.9 following information:

1.10 (i) that the person is the registered owner of the vehicle from which the plates have been
1.11 impounded under this section;

1.12 (ii) that the person is the current owner and possessor of the vehicle used in the violation;

1.13 (iii) the date on which the violator obtained the vehicle from the registered owner;

1.14 (iv) the residence addresses of the registered owner and the violator on the date the
1.15 violator obtained the vehicle from the registered owner;

1.16 (v) that the person was not a passenger in the vehicle at the time of the plate impoundment
1.17 violation; and

1.18 (vi) that the person knows that the violator may not drive, operate, or be in physical 1.19 control of a vehicle without a valid driver's license; or

1.20 (2) the violator did not have a valid driver's license on the date of the plate impoundment
1.21 violation and the person made a report to law enforcement before the violation stating that
1.22 the vehicle had been taken from the person's possession or was being used without 1.23 permission.

2.1 (b) A person who has failed to make a report as provided in paragraph (a), clause (2), 2.2 may be issued special registration plates under subdivision 13 for a period of one year from
2.3 the effective date of the impoundment order. Following this period, the person may apply
2.4 for regular registration plates.

2.5 (c) If the order is rescinded, the owner shall receive new registration plates at no cost,
2.6 if the plates were seized and destroyed or have been affixed with a permanent sticker."

2.7 Renumber the sections in sequence and correct the internal references

2.8 Amend the title accordingly
