Section	Article 1: General Education		Article 1: General Education
1	Budget reserve level. Clarifies a cross reference.	No comparable provision.
2	Additional revenues; priority. Adds two additional priorities to apply to a future state budget surplus: (5) eliminates the extra special education aid payment shift (this is a onetime cost of roughly $37 million); and (6) dedicates the next $50,000,000 for payments to school districts to compensate for permanent school fund revenues foregone in previous years.	No comparable provision.
3	Education, residence, and transportation of homeless students. Requires the initial serving school district to continue to provide transportation services to and from a cooperative program for a homeless student with an individualized education program who changes serving school districts during the school year. Allows the initial and current serving school district to mutually agree to an alternative transportation arrangement.	Same.	Section 1. Education, residence, and transportation of homeless. Provides that, for homeless pupils with an individualized education program (IEP) enrolled in a program authorized by an intermediate district or other cooperative unit, the serving district at the time of the pupil’s enrollment in the program remains responsible for transporting the pupil for the remainder of the school year, unless the initial serving district and current serving district mutually agree that the current serving district will be responsible for providing transportation.
4	Enrollment of a student in foster care. Requires a student in foster care to remain enrolled in the student’s prior school if it is in the student’s best interests. Requires that the best interests of the student must not be influenced by the educational costs associated with the placement of the foster student. If the student does not remain enrolled in the prior school, the student must be enrolled in a new school within seven school days.	No comparable provision.
