Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 2018, section 16C.285, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Minimum criteria. "Responsible contractor" means a contractor that conforms to the responsibility requirements in the solicitation document for its portion of the work on the project and verifies that it meets the following minimum criteria:

(1) the contractor:

   (i) is in compliance with workers' compensation and unemployment insurance requirements;

   (ii) is in compliance with Department of Revenue and Department of Employment and Economic Development registration requirements if it has employees;

   (iii) has a valid federal tax identification number or a valid Social Security number if an individual; and

   (iv) has filed a certificate of authority to transact business in Minnesota with the secretary of state if a foreign corporation or cooperative;

(2) the contractor or related entity is in compliance with and, during the three-year period before submitting the verification, has not violated section 177.24, 177.25, 177.41 to 177.44, 181.03, 181.101, 181.13, 181.14, or 181.722, and has not violated United States Code, title 29, sections 201 to 219, or United States Code, title 40, sections 3141 to 3148. For purposes of this clause, a violation occurs when a contractor or related entity:

   (i) repeatedly fails to pay statutorily required wages or penalties on one or more separate projects for a total underpayment of $25,000 or more within the three-year period, provided that a failure to pay is "repeated" only if it involves two or more separate and distinct occurrences of underpayment during the three-year period;

   (ii) has been issued an order to comply by the commissioner of labor and industry that has become final;

   (iii) has been issued at least two determination letters within the three-year period by the Department of Transportation finding an underpayment by the contractor or related entity to its own employees;

   (iv) has been found by the commissioner of labor and industry to have repeatedly or willfully violated any of the sections referenced in this clause pursuant to section 177.27;

   (v) has been issued a ruling or findings of underpayment by the administrator of the Wage and Hour Division of the United States Department of Labor that have become final.
or have been upheld by an administrative law judge or the Administrative Review Board;

(vi) has been found liable for underpayment of wages or penalties or misrepresenting a construction worker as an independent contractor in an action brought in a court having jurisdiction; or

(vii) has been convicted of a violation of section 609.52, subdivision 2, clause (19).

Provided that, if the contractor or related entity contests a determination of underpayment by the Department of Transportation in a contested case proceeding, a violation does not occur until the contested case proceeding has concluded with a determination that the contractor or related entity underpaid wages or penalties;

(3) the contractor or related entity is in compliance with and, during the three-year period before submitting the verification, has not violated section 181.723 or chapter 326B. For purposes of this clause, a violation occurs when a contractor or related entity has been issued a final administrative or licensing order;

(4) the contractor or related entity has not, more than twice during the three-year period before submitting the verification, had a certificate of compliance under section 363A.36 revoked or suspended based on the provisions of section 363A.36, with the revocation or suspension becoming final because it was upheld by the Office of Administrative Hearings or was not appealed to the office;

(5) the contractor or related entity has not received a final determination assessing a monetary sanction from the Department of Administration or Transportation for failure to meet targeted group business, disadvantaged business enterprise, or veteran-owned business goals, due to a lack of good faith effort, more than once during the three-year period before submitting the verification;

(6) the contractor or related entity is not currently suspended or debarred by the federal government or the state of Minnesota or any of its departments, commissions, agencies, or political subdivisions that have authority to debar a contractor; and

(7) all subcontractors and motor carriers that the contractor intends to use to perform project work have verified to the contractor through a signed statement under oath by an owner or officer that they meet the minimum criteria listed in clauses (1) to (6).

Any violations, suspensions, revocations, or sanctions, as defined in clauses (2) to (5), occurring prior to July 1, 2014, shall not be considered in determining whether a contractor or related entity meets the minimum criteria.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 2018, section 177.27, subdivision 1, is amended to read:
Subdivision 1. Examination of records. The commissioner may enter during reasonable office hours or upon request and inspect the place of business or employment of any employer of employees working in the state, to examine and inspect books, registers, payrolls, and other records of any employer that in any way relate to wages, hours, and other conditions of employment of any employees. The commissioner may transcribe any or all of the books, registers, payrolls, and other records as the commissioner deems necessary or appropriate and may question the employees to ascertain compliance with sections 177.21 to 177.435. The commissioner may investigate wage claims or complaints by an employee against an employer if: (1) the failure to pay a wage may violate Minnesota law or an order or rule of the department; and (2) the employee making the wage claim or complaint has provided a written demand for payment to the employer at least five days prior to the commissioner initiating an investigation.

Subd. 1a. Authority to investigate. To carry out the purposes of this chapter and chapters 181, 181A, and 184, and utilizing the enforcement authority of section 175.20, the commissioner is authorized to enter the places of business and employment of any employer in the state to investigate wages, hours, and other conditions and practices of work, collect evidence, and conduct interviews. The commissioner is authorized to enter the places of business and employment during working hours and without delay. The commissioner may use investigation methods that include but are not limited to examination, transcription, copying, scanning, photographing, audio or video recording, testing, and sampling along with taking custody of evidence. Evidence that may be collected includes but is not limited to documents, records, books, registers, payrolls, electronically and digitally stored information, machinery, equipment, tools, and other tangible items that in any way relate to wages, hours, and other conditions and practices of work. The commissioner may privately interview any individual, including owners, employers, operators, agents, workers, and other individuals who may have knowledge of the conditions and practices of work under investigation.

Subd. 2. Submission of records; penalty. The commissioner may require the employer of employees working in the state to submit to the commissioner photocopies, certified copies, or, if necessary, the originals of employment records which the commissioner deems necessary or appropriate. The records which may be required include full and correct statements in writing, including sworn statements by the employer, containing information relating to wages, hours, names, addresses, and any other information pertaining to the employer's employees and the conditions of their employment as the commissioner deems necessary or appropriate.

The commissioner may require the records to be submitted by certified mail delivery or, if necessary, by personal delivery by the employer or a representative of the employer, as authorized by the employer in writing.
The commissioner may fine the employer up to $1,000 for each failure to submit or deliver records as required by this section, and up to $10,000 for each repeated failure. This penalty is in addition to any penalties provided under section 177.32, subdivision 1. In determining the amount of a civil penalty under this subdivision, the appropriateness of such penalty to the size of the employer's business and the gravity of the violation shall be considered.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 2018, section 177.27, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. Subpoenas. In order to carry out the purposes of this chapter and chapter 181, 181A, or 184, the commissioner may issue subpoenas to compel persons to appear before the commissioner to give testimony and produce and permit inspection, copying, testing, or sampling of documents, electronically stored information, tangible items, or other items in the possession, custody, or control of that person that are deemed necessary or appropriate by the commissioner. A subpoena may specify the form or format in which electronically stored information is to be produced. Upon the application of the commissioner, a district court shall treat the failure of any person to obey a subpoena lawfully issued by the commissioner under this subdivision as a contempt of court.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 2018, section 177.27, is amended by adding a subdivision to
read:

Subd. 12. Court orders for entrance and inspection. To carry out the purposes of this chapter and chapters 181, 181A, and 184, and utilizing the enforcement authority of section 175.20, the commissioner is authorized to enter places of business and employment of any employer in the state to investigate wages, hours, and other conditions and practices of work, collect evidence, and conduct interviews. The commissioner is authorized to enter the places of business and employment during working hours and without delay. Upon the anticipated refusal based on a refusal to permit entrance on a prior occasion or actual refusal of an employer, owner, operator, or agent in charge of an employer's place of business or employment, the commissioner may apply for an order in the district court in the county in which the place of business or employment is located, to compel an employer, owner, operator, or agent in charge of the place of business or employment to permit the commissioner entry to investigate wages, hours, and other conditions and practices of work, collect evidence, and interview witnesses.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 2018, section 177.27, is amended by adding a subdivision to
read:

Subd. 13. State licensing or regulatory power. In the case of an employer which is subject to the licensing or regulatory power of the state or any political subdivision or agency thereof, if the commissioner issues an order to comply under subdivision 4, the commissioner may provide the licensing or regulatory agency a copy of the order to comply. Unless the order to comply is reversed in the course of administrative or judicial review, the order to comply is binding on the agency and the agency may take appropriate action, including action related to the eligibility, renewal, suspension, or revocation of a license or certificate of public convenience and necessity if the agency is otherwise authorized to take such action.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 2018, section 177.27, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 14. Public contracts. In the case of an employer that is a party to a public contract, if the commissioner issues an order to comply under subdivision 4, the commissioner may provide a copy of the order to comply to the contract letting agency. Unless the order to comply is binding on the contract letting agency and the agency may take appropriate administrative action, including the imposition of financial penalties and eligibility for, termination or nonrenewal of a contract, in whole or in part, if the agency is otherwise authorized to take the action.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 2018, section 177.27, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 15. Notice to employees of compliance orders and citations. In a compliance order or citation issued under this chapter and chapters 181, 181A, and 184, the commissioner may require that the provisions of a compliance order or citation setting out the violations found by the commissioner and any subsequent document setting out the resolution of the compliance order or citation through settlement agreement or other final disposition, upon receipt by the employer, be made available for review by the employees of the employer using the means the employer uses to provide other work-related notices to the employer's employees. The means used by the employer must be at least as effective as the following options for providing notice: (1) posting a copy of the compliance order or citation at each location where employees perform work and where the notice must be readily observed and easily reviewed by all employees performing work; or (2) providing a paper or electronic copy of the compliance order or citation to employees. Each citation and proposed penalty shall be posted or made available to employees for a minimum period of 20 days. Upon issuance of a compliance order or citation to an employer, the commissioner may also provide the provisions of the compliance order or citation setting out the violations found by the commissioner and any resolution of a compliance order or citation through settlement agreement or other final disposition to the employer's employees who may be affected by the order or citation and how the order or citation and resolution may affect their interests.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 2018, section 177.30, is amended to read:

177.30 KEEPING RECORDS; PENALTY.

(a) Every employer subject to sections 177.21 to 177.44 must make and keep a record of:

(1) the name, address, and occupation of each employee; the rate of pay, and the amount paid each pay period to each employee, including whether each employee is paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other;

(3) the hours worked each day and each workweek by the employee, including for all employees paid at piece rate, the number of pieces completed at each piece rate;

(4) any personnel policies provided to employees;

(5) a copy of the notice provided to each employee as required by section 181.032, paragraph (d);

(6) for each employer subject to sections 177.41 to 177.44, and while performing work on public works projects funded in whole or in part with state funds, the employer shall furnish under oath signed by an owner or officer of an employer to the contracting authority and the project owner every two weeks, a certified payroll report with respect to the wages and benefits paid each employee during the preceding weeks specifying for each employee:
name; identifying number; prevailing wage master job classification; hours worked each day; total hours; rate of pay; gross amount earned; each deduction for taxes; total deductions; net pay for week; dollars contributed per hour for each benefit, including name and address of administrator; benefit account number; and telephone number for health and welfare, vacation or holiday, apprenticeship training, pension, and other benefit programs; and other information the commissioner finds necessary and appropriate to enforce sections 177.21 to 177.435. The records must be kept for three years in or near the premises and three years after the contracting authority has made final payment on the public works project.

(a) All records required to be kept under paragraph (a) must be readily available for inspection by the commissioner upon demand. The records must be either kept at the place where employees are working or kept in a manner that allows the employer to comply with this paragraph within 24 hours.

(c) The commissioner may fine an employer up to $1,000 for each failure to maintain records as required by this section, and up to $10,000 for each repeated failure. This penalty is in addition to any penalties provided under section 177.32, subdivision 7. In determining the amount of a civil penalty under this subdivision, the appropriateness of such penalty to the size of the employer's business and the gravity of the violation shall be considered.

(d) If the records maintained by the employer do not provide sufficient information to determine the exact amount of back wages due an employee, the commissioner may make a determination of wages due based on available evidence.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 2018, section 177.32, subdivision 1, is amended to read:
Subdivision 1. Misdemeanors. (a) An employer who does any of the following is guilty of a misdemeanor:

1. hinders or delays the commissioner in the performance of duties required under sections 177.21 to 177.44, or chapter 181;
2. refuses to admit the commissioner to the place of business or employment of the employer, as required by section 177.27, subdivision 1;
3. repeatedly fails to make, keep, and preserve records as required by section 177.30;
4. falsifies any record;
5. refuses to make any record available, or to furnish a sworn statement of the record or any other information as required by section 177.27;
6. repeatedly fails to post a summary of sections 177.21 to 177.44 or a copy or summary of the applicable rules as required by section 177.31;
7. pays or agrees to pay wages at a rate less than the rate required under sections 177.21 to 177.44, or described and provided by an employer to its employees under section 181.032;
8. refuses to allow adequate time from work as required by section 177.253; or
9. otherwise violates any provision of sections 177.21 to 177.44, or commits wage theft as described in section 181.03, subdivision 1.

(b) An employer who violates paragraph (a), clause (10), after having been previously convicted of violating that clause is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(c) Nothing in paragraph (a), clause (10), or paragraph (b), or section 609.035 or 609.04 shall limit the power of the state to prosecute or punish a person for conduct that constitutes any other crime under any other law of this state.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2019, and applies to crimes committed on or after that date.
under section 8.31. The remedies available under this section are not exclusive and are in addition to any other requirements, rights, remedies, and penalties provided by law.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 2018, section 181.03, subdivision 1, is amended to read: Subdivision 1. Prohibited practices. An employer may not, directly or indirectly and with intent to defraud: (a) No employer shall commit wage theft.

(b) For purposes of this section, wage theft is committed if:

(1) an employer has failed to pay an employee all wages, salary, gratuities, earnings, or commissions at the employee's rate or rates of pay or at the rate or rates required by law, including any applicable statute, regulation, rule, ordinance, or other legal authority, whichever rate of pay is greater;

(2) an employer directly or indirectly causes any employee to give a receipt for wages for a greater amount than that actually paid to the employee for services rendered;

(3) an employer directly or indirectly demands or receives from any employee any rebate or refund from the wages owed the employee under contract of employment with the employer;
or

(4) an employer in any manner makes or attempts to make it appear that the wages paid to any employee were greater than the amount actually paid to the employee.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 2018, section 181.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to
read:
Subd. 4. Enforcement. The use of an enforcement provision in this section shall not preclude the use of any other enforcement provision provided by law.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 2018, section 181.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to
read:
Subd. 5. Citations. (a) In addition to other remedies and penalties provided by this chapter and chapter 177, the commissioner may issue a citation for a civil penalty of up to $1,000 for any wage theft of up to $1,000 by serving the citation on the employer. The citation may direct the employer to pay employees in a manner prescribed by the commissioner any wages, salary, gratuities, earnings, or commissions owed to the employee. within 15 days of service of the citation on the employer. The commissioner shall serve the citation upon the employer or the employer's authorized representative in person or by certified mail at the employer's place of business or registered office address with the secretary of state. The citation shall require the employer to correct the violation and cease and desist from committing the violation.
(b) In determining the amount of the civil penalty, the commissioner shall consider the size of the employer's business and the gravity of the violation as provided in section 14.045, subdivision 3, paragraph (a). If the citation includes a penalty assessment, the penalty is due and payable on the date the citation becomes final. The commissioner may vacate the citation if the employer pays the amount of wages, salaries, commissions, earnings, and gratuities due in the citation within five days after the citation is served on the employer.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 2018, section 181.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to
read:

Subd. 6. Administrative review. Within 15 days after the commissioner of labor and industry issues a citation under subdivision 5, the employer to whom the citation is issued may request an expedited hearing to review the citation. The request for hearing must be in writing and must be served on the commissioner at the address specified in the citation.
If the employer does not request a hearing or if the employer's written request for hearing is not served on the commissioner by the 15th day after the commissioner issues the citation, the citation becomes a final order of the commissioner and is not subject to review by any court or agency. The hearing request must state the reasons for seeking review of the citation.
The employer to whom the citation is issued and the commissioner are the parties to the expedited hearing. The commissioner must notify the employer to whom the citation is issued of the time and place of the hearing at least 15 days before the hearing. The hearing shall be conducted under Minnesota Rules, parts 1400.8510 to 1400.8612, as modified by this section. If a hearing has been held, the commissioner shall not issue a final order until at least five days after the date of the administrative law judge's report. Any person aggrieved by the administrative law judge's report may, within those five days, serve written comments in the commissioner on the report and the commissioner shall consider and enter the comments in the record. The commissioner's final order shall comply with sections 14.61, subdivision 2, and 14.62, subdivisions 1 and 2a, and may be appealed in the manner provided in sections 14.63 to 14.69.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 2018, section 181.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to
read:

Subd. 7. Effect on other laws. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the application of other state or federal laws.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 2018, section 181.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to
read:
Subd. 8. Retaliation. An employer must not retaliate against an employee for asserting rights or remedies under this section, including but not limited to filing a complaint with the Department of Labor and Industry or telling the employer of intention to file a complaint.
A rebuttable presumption of unlawful retaliation under this section exists whenever an employer takes adverse action against an employee within 90 days of the employee asserting rights or remedies under this section.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 2018, section 181.032, is amended to read:

181.032 REQUIRED STATEMENT OF EARNINGS BY EMPLOYER; NOTICE

(a) At the end of each pay period, the employer shall provide each employee an earnings statement, either in writing or by electronic means, covering that pay period. An employer who chooses to provide an earnings statement by electronic means must provide employee access to an employer-owned computer during an employee's regular working hours to review and print earnings statements.

(b) The earnings statement may be in any form determined by the employer but must include:

(1) the name of the employee;
(2) the hourly

rate

or rates

of pay

(if applicable)

and basis thereof, including whether the employee is paid by hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other method;
(3) allowances, if any, claimed pursuant to permitted meals and lodging;
(4) the total number of hours worked by the employee unless exempt from chapter 177;
(5) the total amount of gross pay earned by the employee during that period;
(6) a list of deductions made from the employee's pay;
(7) the net amount of pay after all deductions are made;
(8) the date on which the pay period ends; and
(9) the legal name of the employer and the operating name of the employer if different from the legal name;
(10) the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and
(11) the telephone number of the employer.

(c) An employer must provide earnings statements to an employee in writing, rather than by electronic means, if the employer has received at least 24 hours notice from an employee that the employee would like to receive earnings statements in written form. Once an employer has received notice from an employee that the employee would like to receive earnings statements in written form, the employer must comply with that request on an ongoing basis.

(d) At the start of employment, an employer shall provide each employee a written notice containing the following information:

(1) the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, including whether the employee is paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other method, and the specific application of any additional rates;

(2) allowances, if any, claimed pursuant to permitted meals and lodging;

(3) paid vacation, sick time, or other paid time off accruals and terms of use;

(4) the employee's employment status and whether the employee is exempt from minimum wage, overtime, and other provisions of chapter 177, and on what basis;

(5) a list of deductions that may be made from the employee's pay;

(6) the dates on which the pay periods start and end and the regularly scheduled payday;

(7) the legal name of the employer and the operating name of the employer if different from the legal name;

(8) the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and

(9) the telephone number of the employer.

(e) The employer must keep a copy of the notice under paragraph (d) signed by each employee acknowledging receipt of the notice. The notice must be provided to each employee in English and in the employee's native language.

(f) An employer must provide the employee any written changes to the information contained in the notice under paragraph (d) at least seven calendar days prior to the time the changes take effect. The changes must be signed by the employee before the changes go into effect. The employer must keep a signed copy of all notice of changes as well as the initial notices under paragraph (d).

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 2018, section 181.101, is amended to read:

181.101 WAGES; HOW OFTEN PAID.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), every employer must pay all wages earned by an employee at least once every 16 days on a regular payday designated in advance by the employer regardless of whether the employee requests payment at longer intervals.

(b) Unless paid earlier, the wages earned during the first half of the first 16-day pay period become due on the first regular payday following the first day of work. An employer's pay period must be no longer than 16 days. All wages earned in a pay period must be paid to an employee within 16 days of the end of that pay period. If wages earned are not paid, the commissioner of labor and industry or the commissioner's representative may serve a demand for payment on behalf of an employee. If payment is not made within five days of service of the demand, the commissioner may charge and collect the wages earned and a penalty liquidated damages in the amount of the employee's average daily earnings at the employee's rate agreed upon in the contract of employment or rates of pay or at the rate or rates required by law, including any applicable statute, regulation, rule, ordinance, government resolution or policy, contract, or other legal authority, whichever rate of pay is greater, not exceeding 15 days in all, for each day beyond the ten-day limit following the demand. Money collected by the commissioner must be paid to the employee concerned. This section does not prevent an employee from prosecuting a claim for wages. This section does not prevent a school district, other public school entity, or other school, as defined under section 120A.22, from paying any wages earned by its employees during a school year on regular paydays in the manner provided by an applicable contract or collective bargaining agreement, or a personnel policy adopted by the governing board. For purposes of this section, "employee" includes a person who performs agricultural labor as defined in section 181.85, subdivision
2. For purposes of this section, wages are earned on the day an employee works.

(b) An employer of a volunteer firefighter, as defined in section 424A.001, subdivision 10, a member of an organized first responder squad that is formally recognized by a political subdivision in the state, or a volunteer ambulance driver or attendant must pay all wages earned by the volunteer firefighter, first responder, or volunteer ambulance driver or attendant at least once every 31 days, unless the employer and the employee mutually agree upon payment at longer intervals.

Sec. 20. [181.1721] ENFORCEMENT; REMEDIES.
Subdivision 1. Public enforcement. In addition to the enforcement of this chapter by the department, the attorney general may enforce this chapter under section 8.31.
Subd. 2. Remedies cumulative. The remedies provided in this chapter are cumulative and do not restrict any remedy that is otherwise available, including remedies provided under section 8.31. The remedies available under this section are not exclusive and are in addition to any other requirements, rights, remedies, and penalties provided by law.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 2018, section 609.52, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Definitions. In this section:
(1) "Property" means all forms of tangible property, whether real or personal, without limitation including documents of value, electricity, gas, water, corpses, domestic animals, dogs, pets, fowl, and heat supplied by pipe or conduit by municipalities or public utility companies and articles, as defined in clause (4), representing trade secrets, which articles shall be deemed for the purposes of Extra Session Laws 1967, chapter 15 to include any trade secret represented by the article.
(2) "Movable property" is property whose physical location can be changed, including without limitation things growing on, affixed to, or found in land.
(3) "Value" means the retail market value at the time of the theft, or if the retail market value cannot be ascertained, the cost of replacement of the property within a reasonable time after the theft, or in the case of a theft or the making of a copy of an article representing a trade secret, where the retail market value or replacement cost cannot be ascertained, any reasonable value representing the damage to the owner which the owner has suffered by reason of losing an advantage over those who do not know of or use the trade secret. For a check, draft, or other order for the payment of money, "value" means the amount of money promised or ordered to be paid under the terms of the check, draft, or other order. For a theft committed within the meaning of subdivision 2, clause (5), items (i) and (ii), if the property has been restored to the owner, "value" means the value of the use of the property or the damage which it sustained, whichever is greater, while the owner was deprived of its possession, but not exceeding the value otherwise provided herein. For a theft committed within the meaning of subdivision 2, clause (9), if the property has been restored to the owner, "value" means the rental value of the property, determined at the rental rate contracted by the defendant or, if no rental rate was contracted, the rental rate customarily charged by the owner for use of the property, plus any damage that occurred to the property while the owner was deprived of its possession, but not exceeding the total retail value of the property at the time of rental. For a theft committed within the meaning of subdivision 2, clause (19), "value" means the difference between wages legally required to be reported or paid to an employee and the amount actually reported or paid to the employee.

(4) "Article" means any object, material, device or substance, including any writing, record, recording, drawing, sample specimen, prototype, model, photograph, microorganism, blueprint or map, or any copy of any of the foregoing.

(5) "Representing" means describing, depicting, containing, constituting, reflecting or recording.

(6) "Trade secret" means information, including a formula, pattern, compilation, program, device, method, technique, or process, that:

(i) derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by, other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use, and

(ii) is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy.

(7) "Copy" means any facsimile, replica, photograph or other reproduction of an article, and any note, drawing, or sketch made of or from an article while in the presence of the article.
