

Written Testimony of Gina Washburn on HF1163

John – A perspective that needs to be considered in this issue is that unscrupulous people are selling auto insurance for cash to undocumented Latinx which turns out to not be any coverage. They then collect cash for any damage to their vehicles. There have been reports to the state Department of Commerce.

In addition, not having a driver's license has been a great hardship for undocumented to get COVID tests, treatment and vaccines.

Gina G. Washburn, Esquire, MA, SPHR
Northfield, MN