50,000

1.9 $50,000 in 2015 is for training state and 1.10 local community safety personnel in the 1.11 use of crisis de-escalation techniques for 1.12 use with Minnesota veterans following
1.13 their return from active military service in 1.14 a combat zone. The director may consult 1.15 with any other state or local governmental 1.16 official or nongovernmental authority the 1.17 director determines to be relevant, to include
1.18 postsecondary institutions, when selecting 1.19 a service provider for this training. The 1.20 training provider must have a demonstrated 1.21 understanding of the transitions and
1.22 challenges that veterans may experience
1.23 during their re-entry into society following
1.24 combat service. The training opportunities
1.25 provided must be reasonably distributed
1.26 statewide. This is a onetime appropriation."

1.27 Renumber the sections in sequence and correct the internal references
