Support for House File HF4872

Dear Chair Hornstein, and Committee Members:

As representatives of the MN Small Cities, we write to express our enthusiastic support for House File HF 4872. Our organization advocates on behalf of over 700 Minnesota cities with populations under 5,000 with more more than 12,000 miles of roads. Before last session, we were the only local units of government NOT receiving state aid for transportation needs.

After many years of effort to secure an ongoing, dedicated source of funding for the Small Cities Assistance Account, the 2023 Legislature PASSED permanent and reliable funding for this important need. The approved spreadsheet from the Transportation Conference Committee showed appropriations of $3 million in FY24 and $19.9 million in FY25.

However, over the interim, MnDOT altered their interpretation of when the money for small cities would be dispersed and created a one-year delay in funding. Per MnDOT, small cities will now get $0 in FY24 and only $2.5m in FY25. Attached is the distribution per city, according to the DOT.

Please appropriate the amount of money that was promised to small cities in the current biennium so they can use it in the current calendar year as they had planned.

Sincerely,
Cap O'Rourke
Executive Director of MN Small Cities
