

1.1 ..... moves to amend H.F. No. 9, the second engrossment, as follows:

1.2 Page 40, delete section 3 and insert:

1.3 "Sec. 3. [211B.075] VOTER INTIMIDATION, INTERFERENCE, AND DECEPTIVE
1.4 PRACTICES PROHIBITED; CIVIL ENFORCEMENT.

1.5 Subdivision 1. Intimidation. (a) A person, whether acting under color of law or
1.6 otherwise, may not directly or indirectly use or threaten force, coercion, violence, restraint,
1.7 damage, harm, or loss, including loss of employment or economic reprisal against:

1.8 (1) an individual with respect to registering or abstaining from registering to vote, voting
1.9 or abstaining from voting, or voting for or against a candidate or ballot question;

1.10 (2) an elections official with respect to the performance of duties related to election
1.11 administration; or

1.12 (3) any person with respect to that person's efforts to encourage another to cast a ballot
1.13 or assist another in registering to vote, traveling to a polling place, casting a ballot, or
1.14 participating in any other aspect of the election process.

1.15 (b) In an action brought to prevent and restrain violations of this section or to require
1.16 the payment of civil penalties, the moving party may show that the action or attempted
1.17 action would cause a reasonable person to feel intimidated. The moving party does not need
1.18 to show that the actor intended to cause the victim to feel intimidated.

1.19 Subd. 2. Deceptive practices. (a) No person, whether acting under color of law or 1.20 otherwise, shall within 60 days of an election cause, by any means, information to be
1.21 transmitted that the person:

1.22 (1) intends to impede or prevent another person from exercising the right to vote; and

1.23 (2) knows to be materially false.

2.1 (b) The prohibition in this subdivision includes but is not limited to information regarding
2.2 the time, place, or manner of holding an election; the qualifications for or restrictions on
2.3 voter eligibility at an election; and threats to physical safety associated with casting a ballot.

2.4 Subd. 3. Interference with registration or voting. No person, whether acting under
2.5 color of law or otherwise, shall intentionally hinder, interfere with, or prevent another person
2.6 from voting, registering to vote, or aiding another person in casting a ballot or registering
2.7 to vote.

2.8 Subd. 4. Vicarious liability; conspiracy. A person, whether acting under color of law
2.9 or otherwise, may be held vicariously liable for any damages resulting from the violation
2.10 of this section and may be identified in an order restraining violations of this section if that
2.11 person:

2.12 (1) intentionally aids, advises, hires, counsels, abets, incites, compels, or coerces a person
2.13 to violate any provision of this section or attempts to aid, advise, hire, counsel, abet, incite,
2.14 compel, or coerce a person to violate any provision of this section; or

2.15 (2) conspires, combines, agrees, or arranges with another to either commit a violation
2.16 of this section or aid, advise, hire, counsel, abet, incite, compel, or coerce a third-person to 2.17 violate any provision of this section.

2.18 Subd. 5. Enforcement. (a) The attorney general or any injured person may enforce this
2.19 section consistent with the authority provided in section 8.31. An action filed by an injured
2.20 person under section 8.31, subdivision 3a, is in the public interest.

2.21 (b) Remedies allowable under this section are cumulative and do not restrict any other
2.22 right or remedy otherwise available to an injured person. An action for a penalty or remedy
2.23 under this section must be brought within two years of the date the violation is alleged to 2.24 have occurred. The complaint process provided in sections 211B.31 to 211B.36 does not
2.25 apply to violations of this section.

2.26 Sec. 4. [211B.076] VOTER INTIMIDATION, INTERFERENCE, AND DECEPTIVE
2.27 PRACTICES PROHIBITED; CRIMINAL PENALTIES.

2.28 Subdivision 1. Intimidation. A person is guilty of a crime if the person, whether acting
2.29 under color of law or otherwise, directly or indirectly uses or threatens force, coercion,
2.30 violence, restraint, damage, harm, or loss, including loss of employment or economic reprisal
2.31 against another with the intent to:

2.32 (1) compel an individual to register or abstain from registering to vote, vote or abstain
2.33 from voting, or vote for or against a candidate or ballot question;

3.1 (2) influence an elections official in the performance of duties related to election
3.2 administration; or

3.3 (3) interfere with any person's efforts to encourage another to cast a ballot or assist
3.4 another person in registering to vote, travelling to a polling place, casting a ballot, or
3.5 participating in any other aspect of the election process.

3.6 Subd. 2. Deceptive practices. (a) A person is guilty of a crime if the person, whether
3.7 acting under color of law or otherwise, within 60 days of an election causes, by any means,
3.8 information to be transmitted that the person:

3.9 (1) intends to impede or prevent another person from exercising the right to vote; and

3.10 (2) knows to be materially false.

3.11 (b) The prohibition in this subdivision includes but is not limited to information regarding
3.12 the time, place, or manner of holding an election; the qualifications for or restrictions on
3.13 voter eligibility at an election; and threats to physical safety associated with casting a ballot.

3.14 Subd. 3. Interference with registration or voting. A person is guilty of a crime if the
3.15 person, whether acting under color of law or otherwise, intentionally hinders, interferes
3.16 with, or prevents another person from voting, registering to vote, or aiding another person
3.17 in casting a ballot or registering to vote.

3.18 Subd. 4. Enforcement. The complaint process provided in sections 211B.31 to 211B.36
3.19 does not apply to violations of this section.

3.20 Subd. 5. Penalty. A person who violates this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

3.21 EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2021, and applies to crimes
3.22 committed on or after that date."
