1.11 Unless otherwise stated, sections 260.751 to 260.835 and the federal Indian Child Welfare 1.12 Act are applicable without exception in any child custody proceeding involving an Indian 1.13 child where custody is granted to someone other than a parent or an Indian custodian.
1.14 Nothing in sections 260.751 to 260.835 is intended to apply to custody actions between 1.15 parents or between a parent and Indian custodian.

1.16 Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 260.753, is amended to read:

1.17 260.753 PURPOSES.

1.18 The purposes of ~~Laws 2015, chapter 78,~~ the Minnesota Indian Family Preservation Act 1.19 are to (1) protect the long-term interests, as defined by the Tribes, of Indian children, their 1.20 families as defined by law or custom, and the child's Tribe; and (2) preserve the Indian 1.21 family and Tribal identity, including an understanding that Indian children are damaged if 1.22 family and child Tribal identity and contact are denied. Indian children are the future of the 1.23 Tribes and are vital to their very existence.

2.1 Sec. 3. [260.754] POLICY ON TRIBAL-STATE RELATIONS.

2.2 (a) The state of Minnesota acknowledges federally recognized Indian Tribes as sovereign 2.3 political entities that predate the existence of the United States and that have retained inherent 2.4 sovereign authority to pass their own laws, maintain their own systems of governance, and 2.5 determine their own jurisdiction. The sovereign authority of Tribes may only be limited by 2.6 the federal government and not by any action of the state, including the state legislature and 2.7 state courts.

2.8 (b) Inherently, as members of Indian Tribes recognized by the federal government, 2.9 Indian people have rights and privileges as members of their Tribe which the state of 2.10 Minnesota recognizes and protects.

2.11 (c) Indian people have a right to be protected from being disfranchised or deprived of 2.12 any of the rights and privileges secured to any citizen in the state and to have the recognition
 2.13 and protection of the rights and privileges flowing from their membership in an Indian Tribe 2.14 by any state action.

2.15 (d) The state of Minnesota recognizes all federally recognized Indian Tribes as having 2.16 the inherent authority to determine their own jurisdiction for any and all Indian child custody 2.17 or child placement proceedings regardless of whether the Tribe's members are on or off the 2.18 reservation and regardless of the procedural posture of the proceeding.

2.19 (e) The state of Minnesota has long recognized the importance of Indian children to their 2.20 Tribes not only as members of Tribal families and communities, but also as the Tribe's
 2.21 greatest resource as future members and leaders of the Tribe. The vitality of Indian children
 2.22 in the state of Minnesota is essential to the health and welfare of both the state and the Tribes
 2.23 and is essential to the future welfare and continued existence of the child's Tribe.

2.24 (f) The state of Minnesota recognizes that the historical deprivation of rights of Indian 2.25 people and Indian Tribes have led to disparate out-of-home placement of Indian children.

 2.32 the Indian child to the child's family at the earliest possible time. Active efforts ~~sets~~ under

 5.21 emergency placement of the Indian child in a foster home or institution under sections

7.7 Subd. 5. Termination of emergency removal or placement. (a) An emergency removal

 7.16 be placed in foster care upon a determination supported by clear and convincing evidence, 7.19 damage to the Indian child.

7.20 (c) In no instance shall emergency removal or emergency placement of an Indian child 7.21 extend beyond 30 days unless the court finds by a showing of clear and convincing evidence

 7.24 proceeding to the jurisdiction of the Indian child's Tribal court; and (3) it has not been

8.1 that a child brought to the agency's attention may have lineage to an Indian Tribe. This 8.2 inquiry shall occur at the time the child comes to the attention of the ~~local social services~~ 8.3 child-placing agency or individual petitioner and shall continue throughout the involvement

 8.14 not immediately available, the child-placing agency shall continue to request this information 8.15 and shall notify the Tribe when it is received. Notice shall be provided to all Tribes to which 8.16 the child may have any Tribal lineage. The ~~local social services~~ child-placing agency shall 8.17 request that the Tribe or a designated Tribal representative participate in evaluating the 8.18 family circumstances, identifying family and Tribal community resources, and developing 8.19 case plans. The child-placing agency shall continue to include the Tribe in service planning 8.20 and updates as to the progress of the case.

8.21 (b) When a ~~local social services~~ child-placing agency has information that a child 8.22 receiving services may be an Indian child, the ~~local social services~~ child-placing agency 8.23 shall notify the Tribe by telephone and by email or facsimile of the child's full name and 8.24 date of birth, the full names and dates of birth of the child's biological parents, and, if known, 8.25 the full names and dates of birth of the child's grandparents and of the child's Indian 8.26 custodian. This notification must be provided so the Tribe can determine if the child is 8.27 ~~enrolled in the Tribe~~ a member or eligible for membership in the Tribe, and must be provided

 8.30 shall continue to request this information and shall notify the Tribe when it is received.
 8.31 Notice shall be provided to all Tribes to which the child may have any Tribal lineage. ~~If the~~

 8.34 ~~United States secretary of the interior.~~

9.1 (c) ~~In accordance with sections 260C.151 and 260C.152~~ In all child placement

 9.4 before a hearing takes place, notify the Tribal social services agency by telephone and by 9.5 email or facsimile of the date, time, and location of the emergency protective ~~ease~~ care or 9.21 the ability of the ~~local social services~~ child-placing agency, individual petitioner, and the 9.22 court to respond to an emergency situation. Lack of participation by a Tribe shall not prevent 9.23 the Tribe from intervening in services and proceedings at a later date. A Tribe may participate 9.24 at any time. At any stage of the ~~local social services~~ child-placing agency's involvement 9.25 with an Indian child, the agency shall provide full cooperation to the Tribal social services 9.26 agency, including disclosure of all data concerning the Indian child. Nothing in this 9.27 subdivision relieves the ~~local social services~~ child-placing agency of satisfying the notice 9.28 requirements in ~~the Indian Child Welfare Act~~ state or federal law.

9.29 Subd. 3. Notice of potential preadoptive or adoptive placement. In any ~~voluntary~~ 9.30 adoptive or preadoptive placement proceeding ~~in which a local social services agency,~~ 9.31 ~~private child-placing agency, petitioner in the adoption, or any other,~~ including voluntary 9.32 proceedings, where any party or participant has reason to believe that a child who is the 10.5 receipt of the notice to provide the requisite notice to the Tribe. No preadoptive or adoptive 10.6 placement proceeding may be held until at least ten days after receipt of the notice by the 10.8 prepare for the proceeding. The child-placing agency or ~~notifying party~~ individual petitioner 10.9 shall include in the notice the identity of the birth parents and child absent written objection 10.10 by the birth parents. The ~~private~~ child-placing agency shall inform the birth parents of the 10.18 Indian child but the father of the child is unknown and has not registered with the fathers' 10.19 adoption registry pursuant to section 259.52, the child-placing agency or ~~person~~ individual 10.20 petitioner shall provide to the Tribe believed to be the Indian child's Tribe information 10.21 sufficient to enable the Tribe to determine the child's eligibility for membership in the Tribe, 10.22 including, but not limited to, the legal and maiden name of the birth mother, her date of 10.23 birth, the names and dates of birth of her parents and grandparents, and, if available,

11.16 Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 260.762, is amended to read:

11.17 260.762 DUTY TO PREVENT OUT-OF-HOME PLACEMENT AND PROMOTE 11.18 FAMILY REUNIFICATION; ACTIVE EFFORTS.

11.19 Subdivision 1. Active efforts. Active efforts includes acknowledging traditional helping 11.20 and healing systems of an Indian child's Tribe and using these systems as the core to help 11.21 and heal the Indian child and family. Active efforts are not required to prevent voluntary 11.22 out-of-home placement and to effect voluntary permanency for the Indian child.

11.23 Subd. 2. Requirements for ~~local social services~~ child-placing agencies. A ~~local social~~ 11.24 ~~services~~ child-placing agency shall:

11.25 (1) work with the Indian child's Tribe and family to develop an alternative plan to 11.26 out-of-home placement;

11.27 (2) before making a decision that may affect an Indian child's safety and well-being or 11.28 when contemplating out-of-home placement of an Indian child, seek guidance from the 11.29 Indian child's Tribe on family structure, how the family can seek help, what family and 11.30 Tribal resources are available, and what barriers the family faces at that time that could 11.31 threaten its preservation; and 12.1 (3) request participation of the Indian child's Tribe at the earliest possible time and 12.2 request the Tribe's active participation throughout the case.

12.3 Subd. 3. Required findings that active efforts were provided. (a) Any party seeking 12.4 to affect a termination of parental rights, other permanency action, or a placement where 12.5 custody of an Indian child may be temporarily or permanently transferred to a person or 12.6 entity who is not the Indian child's parent or Indian custodian, and where the Indian child's 12.7 parent or Indian custodian cannot have the Indian child returned to their care upon demand, 12.8 must satisfy the court that active efforts have been made to provide remedial services and 12.9 rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the Indian family and that these 12.10 efforts have proved unsuccessful.

12.11 (b) A court shall not order an out-of-home or permanency placement for an Indian child 12.12 unless the court finds that the ~~local social services~~ child-placing agency made active efforts 12.13 to, as required by section 260.012 and this section, provide remedial services and 12.14 rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the Indian child's family, and 12.15 that these efforts have proved unsuccessful. To the extent possible, active efforts must be 12.16 provided in a manner consistent with the prevailing social and cultural conditions of the 12.17 Indian child's Tribe and in partnership with the Indian child, Indian parents, extended family, 12.18 and Tribe.

12.19 (c) Regardless of whether the Indian child's Tribe has intervened in the proceedings, the 12.20 court, in determining whether the ~~local social services~~ child-placing agency made active 12.21 efforts to preserve the Indian child's family for purposes of out-of-home placement and 12.22 permanency, the court shall ensure the provision of active efforts designed to correct the 12.23 conditions that lead to the out-of-home placement of the Indian child and shall make findings 12.24 regarding whether the following activities were appropriate and necessary, and whether the 12.25 ~~local social services~~ child-placing agency made appropriate and meaningful services, whether 12.26 listed in this paragraph or not, available to the family based upon that family's specific 12.27 needs:

12.28 (1) whether the ~~local social services~~ child-placing agency made efforts at the earliest 12.29 point possible to (i) identify whether a child may be an Indian child as defined in the Indian 12.30 Child Welfare Act, United States Code, title 25, section 1903, and section 260.755, 12.31 subdivision 8; and (ii) identify and request participation of the Indian child's Tribe at the 12.32 earliest point possible and throughout the investigation or assessment, case planning, 12.33 provision of services, and case completion;

13.1 (2) whether the ~~local social services~~ child-placing agency requested that a Tribally 13.2 designated representative with substantial knowledge of prevailing social and cultural 13.3 standards and child-rearing practices within the Tribal community evaluate the circumstances 13.4 of the Indian child's family ~~and~~, provided the Tribally designated representative with all 13.5 information available regarding the case, and requested that the Tribally designated 13.6 representative assist in developing a case plan that uses Tribal and Indian community 13.7 resources;

13.8 (3) whether the ~~local social services~~ child-placing agency provided concrete services 13.9 and access to both Tribal and non-Tribal services to members of the Indian child's family, 13.10 including but not limited to financial assistance, food, housing, health care, transportation, 13.11 in-home services, community support services, and specialized services; and whether these 13.12 services are being provided in an ongoing manner throughout the agency's involvement 13.13 with the family, to directly assist the family in accessing and utilizing services to maintain 13.14 the Indian family, or reunify the Indian family as soon as safety can be assured if out-of-home 13.15 placement has occurred;

13.16 (4) whether the child-placing agency made early and ongoing efforts to identify, locate, 13.17 and include extended family members;

13.18 ~~(4)~~ (5) whether the ~~local social services~~ child-placing agency notified and consulted 13.19 with the Indian child's extended family members, as identified by the child, the child's 13.20 parents, or the Tribe; whether extended family members were consulted to provide support 13.21 to the child and parents, to inform the ~~local social services~~ child-placing agency and court 13.22 as to cultural connections and family structure, to assist in identifying appropriate cultural 13.23 services and supports for the child and parents, and to identify and serve as a placement and 13.24 permanency resource for the child; and if there was difficulty contacting or engaging with 13.25 extended family members, whether assistance was sought from the Tribe, the Department 13.26 of Human Services, or other agencies with expertise in working with Indian families;

13.27 ~~(5)~~ (6) whether the ~~local social services~~ child-placing agency provided services and 13.28 resources to relatives who are considered the primary placement option for an Indian child, 13.29 as agreed by the ~~local social services~~ child-placing agency and the Tribe, to overcome 13.30 barriers to providing care to an Indian child. Services and resources shall include but are 13.31 not limited to child care assistance, financial assistance, housing resources, emergency 13.32 resources, and foster care licensing assistance and resources; and 13.33 ~~(6)~~ (7) whether the ~~local social services~~ child-placing agency arranged for visitation to 13.34 occur, whenever possible, in the home of the Indian child's parent, Indian custodian, or 14.1 other family member or in another noninstitutional setting, in order to keep the child in 14.2 close contact with parents, siblings, and other relatives regardless of the child's age and to 14.3 allow the child and those with whom the child visits to have natural, unsupervised interaction 14.4 when consistent with protecting the child's safety; and whether the ~~local social services~~ 14.5 child-placing agency consulted with a Tribal representative to determine and arrange for 14.6 visitation in the most natural setting that ensures the child's safety, when the child's safety 14.7 requires supervised visitation.

14.8 Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 260.765, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

 14.16 with an Indian child, the child-placing agency shall, upon request, give the Tribal social 14.17 services agency full cooperation including access to all files concerning the child. If the 14.18 files contain confidential or private data, the child-placing agency or individual may require

 14.30 given to the child's parents, Tribal social services agency, and the Indian custodian upon 14.31 the filing of a petition for termination of parental rights or three months following the 14.32 temporary placement, whichever occurs first.

15.1 ~~At this and any subsequent stage of its involvement with an Indian child, the agency~~
 15.2 ~~shall, upon request, give the Tribal social services agency full cooperation including access~~
 15.3 ~~to all files concerning the child. If the files contain confidential or private data, the agency~~
 15.4 ~~may require execution of an agreement with the Tribal social services agency that the Tribal~~ 15.5 ~~social services agency shall maintain the data according to statutory provisions applicable~~ 15.6 ~~to the data.~~

15.7 Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 260.765, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

15.8 Subd. 3. Notice of administrative review. In an administrative review of a voluntary 15.9 foster care placement, the Tribal social services agency of the child, the Indian custodian, 15.11 in the review.

15.12 Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 260.765, is amended by adding a subdivision
 15.13 to read:

15.14 Subd. 3a. Court requirements for consent. Where any parent or Indian custodian 15.15 voluntarily consents to a foster care placement or to termination of parental rights, the 15.16 consent shall not be valid unless executed in writing and recorded before a judge and 15.17 accompanied by the presiding judge's certificate that the terms and consequences of the 15.18 consent were fully explained in detail and were fully understood by the parent or Indian 15.19 custodian. The court shall also certify that either the parent or Indian custodian fully 15.20 understood the explanation in English or that it was interpreted into a language the parent 15.21 or Indian custodian understood. Any consent given prior to, or within ten days after, birth 15.22 of the Indian child shall not be valid.

15.23 Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 260.765, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

15.24 Subd. 4. Withdrawal of consent to voluntary placement; return of child in voluntary 15.25 placement. Any parent or Indian custodian may withdraw consent to a child placement at 15.26 any time and, upon the withdrawal of consent, the child shall be returned to the parent or 15.27 the Indian custodian. Upon demand by the parent or Indian custodian of an Indian child, 15.28 ~~the local social services agency or private licensed child-placing agency~~ that placed the 15.29 child shall return the child in voluntary foster care placement to the parent or Indian custodian 15.30 within 24 hours of the receipt of the demand. If the request for return does not satisfy the 15.32 ~~child-placing agency~~ shall immediately inform the parent or Indian custodian of the Indian 15.33 child of the requirement.

16.1 Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 260.765, is amended by adding a subdivision
16.2 to read:

16.3 Subd. 4a. Withdrawal of consent to voluntary termination of parental rights or 16.4 adoptive placement; return of custody. In any voluntary proceeding for termination of 16.8 Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 260.765, is amended by adding a subdivision

16.9 to read:

16.10 Subd. 4b. Collateral attack; vacation of decree and return of custody;
16.11 limitations. After the entry of a final decree of adoption of an Indian child in any state 16.12 court, the parent may withdraw consent upon the grounds that consent was obtained through 16.13 fraud or duress and may petition the court to vacate the decree. Upon a finding that consent 16.14 was obtained through fraud or duress, the court shall vacate the decree and return the child 16.15 to the parent. No adoption which has been effective for at least two years may be invalidated 16.16 under the provisions of this subdivision unless otherwise permitted under a provision of 16.17 state law.

16.18 Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 260.771, is amended to read:

16.19 260.771 INVOLUNTARY CHILD PLACEMENT PROCEEDINGS.

16.20 Subdivision 1. Indian Tribe jurisdiction. (a) An Indian Tribe has exclusive jurisdiction 16.21 over a ~~all~~ child placement ~~proceeding~~ proceedings involving an Indian child who resides 16.22 or is domiciled within the reservation of the Tribe, except where jurisdiction is otherwise 16.23 vested in the state by existing federal law. ~~When~~

16.24 (b) Where an Indian child is a ward of the Tribal court, the Indian Tribe retains exclusive 16.25 jurisdiction, notwithstanding the residence or domicile of the child unless the Tribe agrees 16.26 to allow concurrent jurisdiction with the state.

16.27 (c) An Indian Tribe and the state of Minnesota share concurrent jurisdiction over a child 16.28 placement proceeding involving an Indian child who resides or is domiciled outside of the 16.29 reservation of the Tribe.

16.30 Subd. 1a. Active efforts. In any child-placing proceeding, the child-placing agency or 16.31 individual petitioner shall ensure that appropriate active efforts as described in section 16.32 260.762 are provided to the Indian parent or parents, Indian custodian, and family to support

17.1 reunification and preservation of the child's placement with and relationship to the Indian 17.2 child's family.

17.3 Subd. 1b. Placement preference. In any child-placing proceeding, the child-placing 17.4 agency or individual petitioner shall follow the placement preferences described in 17.5 subdivision 7 or, where preferred placement is not available even with the provisions of 17.6 active efforts, shall follow subdivision 7, paragraphs (k) to (p).

17.7 Subd. 1c. Identification of extended family members. Any child-placing agency or 17.8 individual petitioner considering placement of an Indian child shall make active efforts to 17.9 identify and locate siblings and extended family members and to explore placement with 17.10 an extended family member and facilitate continued involvement in the Indian child's life.

17.11 Subd. 1d. Notice of hearings. The notice provisions in section 260.761 apply to all 17.12 involuntary child placement proceedings under this section. An Indian child ten years of 17.13 age and older, the Indian child's parent or parents, the Indian custodian, and the Indian 17.14 child's Tribe shall have notice of the right to participate in all hearings regarding the Indian 17.15 child.

17.16 Subd. 2. Court determination of Tribal affiliation of child. In any child placement 17.17 proceeding, the court shall establish whether an Indian child is involved and the identity of 17.18 the Indian child's Tribe. ~~This chapter~~ Sections 260.751 to 260.835 and the federal Indian 17.19 Child Welfare Act are applicable without exception in any child custody proceeding, as 17.20 defined in the federal act, involving an Indian child. ~~This chapter applies~~ Sections 260.751
17.21 to 260.835 apply to child custody proceedings involving an Indian child whether the child 17.22 is in the physical or legal custody of an Indian parent or parents, Indian custodian, Indian 17.23 extended family member, or other person at the commencement of the proceedings. A court 17.24 shall not determine the applicability of ~~this chapter~~ sections 260.751 to 260.835 or the 17.25 federal Indian Child Welfare Act to a child custody proceeding based upon whether an 17.26 Indian child is part of an existing Indian family or based upon the level of contact a child 17.27 has with the child's Indian Tribe, reservation, society, or off-reservation community.

17.28 Subd. 2a. Right of intervention. In any state court child placement proceeding of an 17.29 Indian child, the Indian child's Tribe, parent or parents, and Indian custodian shall have the 17.30 right to intervene at any point in the proceeding.

17.31 Subd. 2b. Appointment of counsel. (a) In any state court child placement proceeding, 17.32 the parent or parents or Indian custodian shall have the right to be represented by an attorney.
17.33 If the parent or parents or Indian custodian cannot afford an attorney and meet the 17.34 requirements of section 611.17, an attorney will be appointed to represent them.

18.1 (b) In any state court child placement proceeding, any child ten years of age or older 18.2 shall have the right to court-appointed counsel.

18.3 Subd. 2c. Examination of reports or other documents. Each party to a proceeding 18.4 under this section involving an Indian child shall have the right to examine all the reports 18.5 or other documents filed with the court upon which any decision with respect to the action 18.6 may be based.

18.7 Subd. 2d. Tribal access to files and other documents. At any subsequent stage of the 18.8 child-placing agency involvement with an Indian child, the child-placing agency or individual
 18.9 shall, upon request, give the Tribal social services agency full cooperation including access 18.10 to all files concerning the Indian child. If the files contain confidential or private data, the 18.11 child-placing agency or individual may require execution of an agreement with the Tribal 18.12 social services agency specifying that the Tribal social services agency shall maintain the 18.13 data according to statutory provisions applicable to the data.

18.14 Subd. 3. Transfer of proceedings. (a) In a ~~any child custody proceeding for: (1) the~~ 18.15 ~~termination of parental rights; or (2) the involuntary foster care placement of an Indian child~~ 18.16 ~~not within the jurisdiction of subdivision 1, the court, in the absence of good cause to the~~ 18.17 ~~contrary, shall transfer the proceeding to the jurisdiction of the Tribe absent objection by~~ 18.18 ~~either parent, upon.~~ The petition of either to transfer may be filed by the Indian child's 18.19 parent, the Indian custodian, or the Indian child's Tribe. The transfer is subject to declination 18.20 by the Tribal court of the Tribe.

18.21 (b) In a proceeding for the preadoptive or adoptive placement of an Indian child not 18.22 within the jurisdiction of subdivision 1, the court, in the absence of good cause to the 18.23 contrary, shall transfer the proceeding to the jurisdiction of the Tribe. The transfer is subject 18.24 to declination by the Tribal court of the Tribe. For the purposes of this subdivision, 18.25 "preadoptive placement" and "adoptive placement" have the meanings give in section 18.26 260.755, subdivision 3.

18.27 (c) At any point in a proceeding for finalizing a permanency plan, the court, in the 18.28 absence of good cause to the contrary and in the absence of an objection by either parent, 18.29 shall transfer the proceeding to Tribal court for the purpose of achieving a customary adoption 18.30 or other culturally appropriate permanency option. This transfer shall be made upon the 18.31 petition of a parent whose parental rights have not been terminated, the Indian custodian, 18.32 or the Indian child's Tribe. The transfer is subject to declination by the Tribal court of the 18.33 Tribe.

19.1 Subd. 3a. Good cause to deny transfer. (a) Establishing good cause to deny transfer 19.2 of jurisdiction to a Tribal court is a fact-specific inquiry to be determined on a case-by-case 19.3 basis. Socioeconomic conditions and the perceived adequacy of Tribal or Bureau of Indian 19.4 Affairs social services or judicial systems must not be considered in a determination that 19.5 good cause exists. The party opposed to transfer of jurisdiction to a Tribal court has the 19.6 burden to prove by clear and convincing evidence that good cause to deny transfer exists.
 19.7 Opposition to a motion to transfer jurisdiction to Tribal court must be in writing and must 19.8 be served upon all parties.

19.9 (b) The court may find good cause to deny transfer to Tribal court if:

19.10 (1) the Indian child's Tribe does not have a Tribal court or any other administrative body 19.11 of a Tribe vested with authority over child custody proceedings, as defined by the Indian 19.12 Child Welfare Act, United States Code, title 25, chapter 21, to which the case can be 19.13 transferred, and no other Tribal court has been designated by the Indian child's Tribe; or 19.14 (2) the evidence necessary to decide the case could not be adequately presented in the 19.15 Tribal court without undue hardship to the parties or the witnesses and the Tribal court is 19.16 unable to mitigate the hardship by any means permitted in the Tribal court's rules. Without 19.17 evidence of undue hardship, travel distance alone is not a basis for denying a transfer.

19.18 Subd. 4. Effect of Tribal court placement orders. ~~To the extent that any child subject~~
 19.19 ~~to sections 260.755 to 260.835 is otherwise eligible for social services, orders of a Tribal~~ 19.20 ~~court concerning placement of such child shall have the same force and effect as orders of~~ 19.21 ~~a court of this state.~~ (a) The court shall give full faith and credit to Tribal court placement
 19.22 orders. In any case where the Tribal court orders placement ~~through a local social services~~ 19.23 ~~agency, the court shall provide to~~ and services, including but not limited to case planning 19.24 services, full faith and credit of the Tribal court's order shall be provided so long as the local 19.25 agency county of financial responsibility was provided notice and an opportunity to be heard 19.26 regarding the placement expenses. Determination of county of financial responsibility for 19.27 the placement shall be determined by the ~~local social services~~ child-placing agency in 19.28 accordance with section 256G.02, subdivision 4. Disputes concerning the county of financial 19.29 responsibility shall be settled in the manner prescribed in section 256G.09.

19.30 (b) The court shall give full faith and credit to the public acts, records, and judicial 19.31 proceedings of any Indian Tribe in all proceedings under sections 260.755 to 260.835. The 19.32 courts shall give deference to the Tribe's interpretation of the Tribe's own unique system of 19.33 laws. If further interpretation of a Tribe's laws or order is required, the court shall transfer

20.1 the proceedings to the jurisdiction of the Tribal court for interpretation of the Tribal court's 20.2 order.

20.3 Subd. 5. Indian Tribe agreements. The commissioner or the local social service agency
20.4 is hereby authorized to enter into agreements with Indian Tribes ~~pursuant to United States~~
20.5 ~~Code, title 25, section 1919,~~ respecting care and custody of Indian children and jurisdiction 20.6 over child custody proceedings, including agreements which may provide for orderly transfer 20.7 of jurisdiction on a case-by-case basis and agreements which provide for concurrent 20.8 jurisdiction between the state and an Indian Tribe.

20.9 Subd. 6. Qualified expert witness and evidentiary requirements. (a) In an involuntary 20.10 foster care placement proceeding, the court must determine by clear and convincing evidence, 20.11 including testimony of a qualified expert witness, that continued custody of the child by the 20.12 parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional damage or serious physical 20.13 damage to the child as defined in the Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978, United States Code, 20.14 title 25, section 1912(e).

20.15 In a termination of parental rights proceeding, the court must determine by evidence 20.16 beyond a reasonable doubt, including testimony of a qualified expert witness, that continued 20.17 custody of the child by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional 20.18 damage or serious physical damage to the child ~~as defined in the Indian Child Welfare Act~~
20.19 ~~of 1978, United States Code, title 25, section 1912(f).~~

20.20 In an involuntary permanent transfer of legal and physical custody proceeding, permanent 20.21 custody to the agency proceedings, temporary custody to the agency, or other permanency 20.22 proceedings, the court must determine by clear and convincing evidence, including testimony 20.23 of a qualified expert witness, that the continued custody of the Indian child by the Indian 20.24 child's parent or parents or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional damage
20.25 or serious physical damage to the child. Qualified expert witness testimony is not required 20.26 where custody is transferred to the Indian child's parent.

20.27 Testimony of a qualified expert witness shall be provided for involuntary foster care 20.28 placement and permanency proceedings independently.

20.29 (b) ~~The local social services~~ child-placing agency, individual petitioner, or any other 20.30 party shall make diligent efforts to locate and present to the court a qualified expert witness 20.31 designated by the Indian child's Tribe. The qualifications of a qualified expert witness 20.32 designated by the Indian child's Tribe are not subject to a challenge in Indian child custody 20.33 proceedings.

21.1 (c) If a party cannot obtain testimony from a Tribally designated qualified expert witness, 21.2 the party shall submit to the court the diligent efforts made to obtain a Tribally designated 21.3 qualified expert witness.

21.4 (d) If clear and convincing evidence establishes that a party's diligent efforts cannot 21.5 produce testimony from a Tribally designated qualified expert witness, the party shall 21.6 demonstrate to the court that a proposed qualified expert witness is, in descending order of 21.7 preference:

21.8 (1) a member of the child's Tribe who is recognized by the Indian child's Tribal 21.9 community as knowledgeable in Tribal customs as they pertain to family organization and 21.10 child-rearing practices; or

21.11 (2) an Indian person from an Indian community who has substantial experience in the 21.12 delivery of child and family services to Indians and extensive knowledge of prevailing social 21.13 and cultural standards and contemporary and traditional child-rearing practices of the Indian 21.14 child's Tribe.

21.15 If clear and convincing evidence establishes that diligent efforts have been made to obtain 21.16 a qualified expert witness who meets the criteria in clause (1) or (2), but those efforts have 21.17 not been successful, a party may use an expert witness, as defined by the Minnesota Rules
21.18 of Evidence, rule 702, who has substantial experience in providing services to Indian families 21.19 and who has substantial knowledge of prevailing social and cultural standards and 21.20 child-rearing practices within the Indian community. The court or any party may request

21.22 Indian child's Tribe in locating persons qualified to serve as expert witnesses.

21.23 (e) The court may allow alternative methods of participation and testimony in state court 21.25 videoconferencing, or other methods.

21.26 Subd. 7. Order of placement preference; deviation. (a) ~~The court must follow the~~ 21.27 ~~order of placement preferences required by the Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978, United~~ 21.28 ~~States Code, title 25, section 1915, when placing an Indian child. In all proceedings where~~ 21.29 ~~custody of the Indian child may be removed from the parent, the Indian child shall be placed~~ 21.30 ~~in the least restrictive setting which most approximates a family and in which the Indian~~ 21.31 ~~child's special needs, if any, may be met. The Indian child shall also be placed within~~ 21.32 ~~reasonable proximity to the Indian child's home, taking into account any special needs of~~ 21.33 ~~the Indian child.~~

22.1 (b) In the case of a placement under paragraph (c) or (d), if the Indian child's Tribe has 22.2 established a different order of placement preference by resolution, the child-placing agency
22.3 and the court shall recognize the Indian child's Tribe's order of placement in the form 22.4 provided by the Tribe.

22.5 (c) Preference shall be given, in the absence of good cause to the contrary, to a placement 22.6 with:

22.7 (1) a noncustodial parent or Indian custodian;

22.8 (2) a member of the child's extended family;

22.9 (3) a foster home licensed, approved, or specified by the Indian child's Tribe;

22.10 (4) an Indian foster home licensed or approved by an authorized non-Indian licensing 22.11 authority; or

22.12 (5) an institution for children approved by an Indian Tribe or operated by an Indian 22.13 organization which has a program suitable to meet the Indian child's needs.

22.14 (d) In any adoptive placement, transfer of custody placement, or other permanency 22.15 placement of an Indian child, a preference shall be given, in the absence of good cause to 22.16 the contrary, to a placement with:

22.17 (1) the Indian child's noncustodial parent or Indian custodian;

22.18 (2) a member of the child's extended family;

22.19 (3) other members of the Indian child's Tribe; or 22.20 (4) other persons or entities recognized as appropriate to be a permanency resource for 22.21 the Indian child, by the Indian child's parent or parents, Indian custodian, or Indian Tribe.

22.22 (e) The county shall defer to the judgment of the Indian child's Tribe as to the suitability 22.23 of a placement.

22.24 (f) The court shall consider the preference of the Indian child or parent.

22.25 (g) The standards to be applied in meeting the preference requirements of this subdivision 22.26 shall be the prevailing social and cultural standards of the Indian community in which the 22.27 parent or extended family resides or with which the parent or extended family members 22.28 maintain social and cultural ties.

22.29 (h) Whenever an Indian child is removed from a foster care home or institution for the 22.30 purpose of further foster care, preadoptive, or adoptive placement, the placement shall be 22.31 in accordance with the placement preferences, except in the case where an Indian child is

23.1 being returned to the parent or Indian custodian from whose custody the Indian child was 23.2 originally removed.

23.3 (i) A record of each such placement under state law of an Indian child shall be maintained
 23.4 by the county in which the placement was made and by the Department of Human Services 23.5 evidencing the efforts to comply with the order of preference specified in this section. The 23.6 record shall be made available at any time upon the request of the Secretary of the Interior 23.7 or the Indian child's Tribe.

23.8 ~~(b)~~ (j) The court ~~may place a child outside the order of~~ shall follow the placement 23.9 ~~preferences only if the court determines there is good cause based on~~ in paragraphs (a) to 23.10 (i), except as follows:

23.11 (1) where a parent evidences a desire for anonymity, the child-placing agency and the 23.12 court shall give weight to the parent's desire for anonymity in applying the preferences. A 23.13 parent's desire for anonymity does not excuse the application of sections 260.751 to 260.835; 23.14 or

23.15 (2) where the court determines there is good cause based on:

23.16 ~~(4)~~ (i) the reasonable request of the Indian child's parents, if one or both parents attest 23.17 that they have reviewed the placement options that comply with the order of placement 23.18 preferences;

23.19 ~~(2)~~ (ii) the reasonable request of the Indian child if the child is able to understand and 23.20 comprehend the decision that is being made;

23.21 ~~(3)~~ (iii) the testimony of a qualified expert designated by the child's Tribe and, if 23.22 necessary, testimony from an expert witness who meets qualifications of subdivision 6, 23.23 paragraph (d), clause (2), that supports placement outside the order of placement preferences 23.24 due to extraordinary physical or emotional needs of the child that require highly specialized 23.25 services; or

23.26 ~~(4)~~ (iv) the testimony by the ~~local social services~~ child-placing agency that a diligent 23.27 search has been conducted that did not locate any available, suitable families for the child 23.28 that meet the placement preference criteria.

23.29 ~~(e)~~ (k) Testimony of the child's bonding or attachment to a foster family alone, without 23.30 the existence of at least one of the factors in paragraph ~~(b)~~ (j), clause (2), shall not be 23.31 considered good cause to keep an Indian child in a lower preference or nonpreference 23.32 placement. Ease of visitation and facilitation of relationship with the Indian child's parents, 23.33 Indian custodian, extended family, or Tribe may be considered when determining placement.

24.1 ~~(d)~~ (l) A party who proposes that the required order of placement preferences not be 24.2 followed bears the burden of establishing by clear and convincing evidence that good cause 24.3 exists to modify the order of placement preferences.

24.4 ~~(e)~~ (m) If the court finds there is good cause to place the Indian child outside the order 24.5 of placement preferences, the court must make written findings.

24.6 ~~(f)~~ (n) A good cause finding under this subdivision must consider whether active efforts 24.7 were provided to extended family members who are considered the primary placement 24.8 option to assist them in becoming a placement option for the Indian child as required by 24.9 section 260.762.

24.10 ~~(g)~~ (o) When ~~a~~ an Indian child is placed outside the order of placement preferences, 24.11 good cause to continue this placement must be determined at every stage of the proceedings.

24.12 Subd. 8. Guardian ad litem for Indian children. Guardian ad litem shall be 24.13 specifically trained in the provision of services to Indian children, parent or parents, and 24.17 JURISDICTION, INVALIDATION, RETURN OF CUSTODY.

24.18 Subdivision 1. Improper removal. In any proceeding where custody of the Indian child 24.19 was improperly removed from the parent or parents or where the petitioner has improperly 24.20 retained custody after a visit or other temporary relinquishment of custody, the court shall 24.21 decline jurisdiction over the petition and shall immediately return the Indian child to the 24.22 Indian child's parent or parents or Indian custodian unless returning the Indian child to the 24.23 Indian child's parent or parents or Indian custodian would subject the Indian child to a 24.24 substantial and immediate danger or threat of such danger.

24.25 Subd. 2. Invalidation. (a) Any order for out-of-home placement, transfer of custody, 24.26 termination of parental rights, or other permanent change in custody of an Indian child shall 24.33 260.762, 260.765, or 260.771 has occurred, the court shall:

25.1 (1) dismiss the petition without prejudice; and 25.2 (2) return the Indian child to the care, custody, and control of the parent or parents or 25.3 Indian custodian, unless the Indian child would be subjected to imminent damage or harm.

25.4 Subd. 3. Return of custody following adoption. (a) Whenever a final decree of adoption 25.5 of an Indian child has been vacated, set aside, or there is a termination of the parental rights
 25.6 of the adoptive parents to the child, a biological parent or prior Indian custodian may petition 25.7 for return of custody and the court shall grant the petition unless there is a showing, in 25.8 proceedings subject to the provision of sections 260.751 to 260.835, that the return of custody 25.9 is not in the best interests of the Indian child.

25.10 (b) The county attorney, Indian child, Indian child's Tribe, or a parent whose parental 25.11 rights were terminated under a previous order of the court may file a petition for the return 25.12 of custody.

25.13 (c) A petition for return of custody may be filed in court when:

25.14 (1) the parent has corrected the conditions that led to an order terminating parental rights;

25.15 (2) the parent is willing and has the capability to provide day-to-day care and maintain 25.16 the health, safety, and welfare of the Indian child; and 25.17 (3) the adoption has been vacated, set aside, or termination of the parental rights of the 25.18 adoptive parents to the Indian child has occurred.

25.19 (d) A petition for reestablishment of the legal parent and child relationship for a child 25.20 who has not been adopted must meet the requirements in section 260C.329.

 25.25 residing in the county where the child's reservation is located, from the county to the Tribe.
 25.26 An agreement under this section shall include a provision clarifying whether the county or
