

I oppose the amendment to the MN test requirements.

This would force unnecessary extra paper work on homeschool parents and the school districts.

MN has always offered the freedom to be able to raise and teach our children the way we as parents see fit. This amendment would be a step towards taking away some of that freedom.

It is also a violation of privacy by forcing parents to hand over private information about our children.