Regarding: DE amendment to the Education Omnibus bill

To Whom It May Concern:

It has been proven time and again that homeschooling produces results that are at least as good as group schools. Families who homeschool are very diligent to be sure they are doing everything required of them. To require homeschoolers to prove they are doing what they are already by law required to do is overstepping. Allowing homeschooling families to self-govern this area for themselves has worked since the beginning. As a homeschooling mom, I have NEVER met anyone who didn't test their children yearly. Not even once. Please do not put this unnecessary burden on families.

Respectfully submitted,

Andrea Knutsen
