"Section 1. [244.049] INDETERMINATE SENTENCE RELEASE BOARD.
Subdivision 1. Establishment; membership. (a) The Indeterminate Sentence Release
Board is established to review eligible cases and make release and final discharge decisions
for:
(1) inmates serving life sentences with the possibility of parole or supervised release under sections 243.05, subdivision 1, and 244.05, subdivision 5; and
(2) inmates serving indeterminate sentences for crimes committed on or before April 30, 1980.
(b) The authority to grant discretionary release and final discharge previously vested in the commissioner under sections 243.05, subdivisions 1, paragraph (a), and 3; 244.08; and 609.12 is transferred to the board.
(c) The board consists of five members as follows:
(1) four individuals appointed by the governor from which each of the majority leaders and minority leaders of the house of representatives and the senate provides two candidate recommendations for consideration; and
(2) the commissioner, who serves as chair.
(d) Appointed board members must meet the following qualifications, at a minimum:
(1) a law degree or a bachelor's degree in criminology, corrections, or a related social science;

- Subd. 2. Rules. (a) Notwithstanding section 14.03, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), clause (1), the commissioner of corrections shall adopt by rule standards and procedures for the revocation of supervised or conditional release, and shall specify the period of revocation for each violation of release except in accordance with subdivision 5, paragraph (h), for inmates serving life sentences.
- (b) Procedures for the revocation of release shall provide due process of law for the inmate.
- Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 244.05, subdivision 5, is amended to read:
- Subd. 5. Supervised release, life sentence. (a) The eommissioner of corrections board may, under rules promulgated adopted by the commissioner, give grant supervised release or parole to an inmate serving a mandatory life sentence under section 609.185, paragraph (a), clause (3), (5), or (6); 609.3455, subdivision 3 or 4; or 609.385; or Minnesota Statutes 2004, section 609.109, subdivision 3, after the inmate has served the minimum term of imprisonment specified in subdivision 4. Supervised release or parole must be granted with a majority vote of the board members.
- (b) The eommissioner shall board must require the preparation of a community investigation report and shall consider the findings of the report when making a supervised release or parole decision under this subdivision. The report shall must:
- (1) reflect the sentiment of the various elements of the community toward the inmate, both at the time of the offense and at the present time-:
- The report shall (2) include the views of the sentencing judge, the prosecutor, any law enforcement personnel who may have been involved in the case, and any successors to these individuals who may have information relevant to the supervised release decision-; and
- The report shall also (3) include the views of the victim and the victim's family unless the victim or the victim's family chooses not to participate.
- (c) The commissioner shall must make reasonable efforts to notify the victim, in advance, of the time and place of the inmate's supervised release review hearing. The victim has a right to submit an oral or written statement at the review hearing. The statement may summarize the harm suffered by the victim as a result of the crime and give the victim's recommendation on whether the inmate should be given supervised release at this time. The commissioner must consider the victim's statement when making the supervised release decision.

Sec. 3. 3

4.1	(d) When considering whether to give grant supervised release or parole to an inmate
4.2	serving a life sentence under section 609.3455, subdivision 3 or 4 or indeterminate sentence,
4.3	the commissioner shall board must consider, at a minimum, the following:
4.4	$\underline{(1)}$ the risk the inmate poses to the community if released;
4.5	(2) the inmate's progress in treatment;
4.6	(3) the inmate's behavior while incarcerated;
4.7	(4) psychological or other diagnostic evaluations of the inmate;
4.8	(5) the inmate's criminal history;
4.9	(6) a victim statement under paragraph (c), if submitted; and
4.10	(7) any other relevant conduct of the inmate while incarcerated or before incarceration.
4.11	(e) The eommissioner board may not give supervised release or parole to the an inmate
4.12	unless:
4.13	(1) while in prison:
4.14	(i) the inmate has successfully completed appropriate sex offender treatment, if applicable;
4.15	(ii) the inmate has been assessed for substance use disorder needs and, if appropriate,
4.16	has successfully completed substance use disorder treatment; and
4.17	(iii) the inmate has been assessed for mental health needs and, if appropriate, has
4.18	successfully completed mental health treatment; and
4.19	(2) a comprehensive individual release plan is in place for the inmate that:
4.20	(i) ensures that, after release, the inmate will have suitable housing and receive appropriate
4.21	aftercare and community-based treatment. The comprehensive plan also must include; and
4.22	(ii) includes a postprison employment or education plan for the inmate.
4.23	(e) (f) When granting supervised release to an inmate serving a life sentence, the board
4.24	must set prerelease conditions to be followed by the inmate before their actual release or
4.25	before constructive parole becomes effective. If the inmate violates any of the prerelease
4.26	conditions, the commissioner may rescind the grant of supervised release without a hearing
4.27	at any time before the inmate's release or before constructive parole becomes effective. A
4.28	grant of constructive parole becomes effective once the inmate begins serving the consecutive
4.29	sentence.
4.30	(g) If the commissioner rescinds a grant of supervised release or parole, the board:
