

03/06/2021

To whom it may concern;

I oppose HF874. It is not be necessary or beneficial to give an exclusive endorsement of public education in disregard of private and homeschool education, and it may at some point be interpreted to imply that non-public education is detrimental or invalid. In my view, public education will never achieve its intended benefit to our citizens until and unless it learns to welcome competition from private educators.

Respectfully,

Alan Fredrickson and Sandy Fredrickson

23875 115th St

Stewart, MN 55385

Phone: (320) 562-2567