

1.1 moves to amend H.F. No. 8, the second engrossment, as follows:

1.2 Page 3, after line 16, insert:

1.3 "(e) A person is not liable under this section unless the person has been informed
1.4 by the original source that single or multiple false or fraudulent claims have been made
1.5 against the state and the person has been given a reasonable opportunity to rectify the 1.6 matter with the state. If an employer has a compliance office, an original source is not 1.7 considered to have informed the person of a matter unless the original source reported the 1.8 matter to the person's compliance office."
