Overview

Directs the commissioner of children, families and learning to consult with school districts in considering the minimum number of school days needed to ensure students' academic achievement and to report findings and recommendations to the legislature by February 15, 2000. Reimburses school districts for the 1998-1999 school year costs of providing three additional days of instruction required in law.

Section

1 Minimum number of days of instruction in a school year; report. Directs the commissioner of children, families and learning to consult with school districts in considering the minimum number of school days needed to ensure students' academic achievement. Directs the commissioner to report findings and recommendations to the legislature by February 15, 2000.

2 Appropriation. Appropriates an unspecified amount from the general fund in fiscal year 2000 to the commissioner of children, families and learning for reimbursing school districts for the costs of providing during the 1998-1999 school year the three additional days of instruction required in law. Directs districts to apply to the commissioner for reimbursement.