Analyst	Nathan Hopkins
Date	March 25, 2019

Overview

This bill establishes a Legislative Commission on Intelligence and Technology to study issues related to individual privacy and emerging technology.

Summary

Section	Description
1	Legislative Commission on Intelligence and Technology.

Subd. 1. Established. Establishes the commission. States that the commission's role is to study, investigate, and oversee issues related to emerging technology, government surveillance, and individual privacy.

Subd. 2. Membership. Provides that the commission consists of four senate members and four house members — evenly split on a bipartisan basis — and appointed by caucus leadership from each body at the beginning of a legislative session.

Subd. 3. Terms; vacancies. Provides for two-year terms expiring at the end of the legislative session. The appropriate appointing authority would fill any vacancy during the session.

Subd. 4. Staff. Requires legislative staff to provide administrative and research assistance to the commission.

Subd. 6. Meetings; data. Allows the commission to hold nonpublic meetings. Provides that the commission may compel law enforcement officials to disclose not public data to the commission. Subjects commission members to civil liability for further dissemination of not public data.

Subd. 7. Subpoena power. Provides that the chair or vice-chair of the commission may compel testimony or production of documents through legislative subpoena.
