

Subject Dyslexia identification reporting

Authors Edelson and others

Analyst Cristina Parra

Date March 10, 2020

Summary

This bill modifies school districts' reporting requirements regarding their efforts to screen and identify students who demonstrate the characteristics of dyslexia. The bill strikes requirements regarding students with convergence insufficiency disorder, and requires districts to report their efforts to screen for dyslexia, the number of students screened, and the number of students demonstrating characteristics of dyslexia.